

Mondstadt OC

Name: Jade (No surname)

Gender: Nonbinary (she/they)

Profession: Knight of Favonius, fifth company

Nationality: Born in Fontaine, now Mondstadt

Vision: Anemo vision

Backstory: An orphan in Fontaine, Jade was taken in by the House of the Hearth under Crucabina at the age of six. After two years, Peruere defeated Jade and so she was handed over to Dottore, who discovered Jade has a perfect memory. They were experimented on until Dottore was killed and they escaped. Shortly thereafter, Jade ran into Varka. In fear of everything that moved, they attacked him. However, Varka very quickly overpowered her and interrogated them. In the interrogation, Varka learned her history and decided to bring them back to Mondstadt to become a knight. When they got there, Jean was not a fan of the idea, distrusting Jade, but Varka insisted and so Jade took a Knight exam and passed with flying colors. They were put in the Fifth Company due to their exceptional ranged weapon skillset and from there, they built a respect for Lohen, looking up to him as a role model. Perhaps not the best choice for a role model, but that's who they chose. After a while, they asked Albedo to run tests and make them forget the memories haunting her. So far, he has had no success.

Hello

Oh, hey there. Did you need something? I can probably help, if you don't mind, of course.

Chat: Counting

When there's nothing to do, I'll often count how many floorboards there are. Vice Captain Lohen's office has 57, while Grandmaster Varka's has a whopping 80. I also noticed five of the Vice Captain's tiles seem deliberately loose. I wonder why...

Chat: Pondering

I wonder if the Grandmaster ever considered wearing a dress. He'd look good in one, I think. T-Tell him? I could never!

Chat: Fifth Company

I joined the Fifth Company because I'm really good at shooting a gun and they had an opening. What would change if I was in a different company?

When It Rains

The rain is pouring down pretty hard, watch your step.

After the Rain

Maybe we can find a rainbow...

When Thunder Strikes

Watch out for the lighting. Wouldn't want you to get injured.

When It Snows

Good thing I have my coat, it's quite cold.

When It's Windy

I don't know if it's because I have an Anemo vision or because I was locked up for so long, but the wind feels amazing!

In the Desert

Is that sand? Can I touch it?

Good Morning

Yawn Morning. Time for training!

Good Afternoon

Good afternoon! Are you hungry? I know I am!

Good Evening

I like to watch the sunset, I could watch it a million times and it's always slightly different.

Good Night

Sleep well! I hope you don't have nightmares.

About Jade: Pranks

Sometimes, when Vice Captain Lohen is out giving other knights "Special training" I'll slip into his office and move something slightly out of place. I don't think he's noticed yet...

About Jade: Information

Friendship Lv. 4

I like to collect all the information I can, hoping it'll overwhelm the previous memories and I'll forget something. Maybe everything.

About Us: Experience

You've traveled to all the nations, yeah? So you've seen a lot in your time! I'd love to hear about some of your adventures! Eventually I want to go to all the nations too! Would you take me sometime?

About Us: Training

Friendship Lv. 6

I'd love to learn how to fight under you! I can tell you're someone not to be trifled with! And that's not just because you're our Honorary Knight!

About the Vision

Friendship Lv. 4

When I was escaping The Doctor, I almost got captured by some Fatui agents, but then this vision appeared. Funny, I had mocked the gods for what happened to me. Fate really likes to laugh at us.

Something to Share

I always know when someone is planning something in secret because they act differently, which makes surprises nearly impossible to surprise me. The Vice Captain is the hardest to detect, but when he does something, his eyes sparkle a little more than usual and his smile is a bit brighter.

Interesting Things

In the same way you can't comprehend remembering everything, I can't comprehend forgetting things. I have tried but nothing ever works. What's it like being able to forget the mundane?

About Varka

Shortly after I escaped Dottore, Grandmaster Varka found me. I was afraid he was one of Dottore's men at first and attacked. He very quickly overpowered me. When I told him my story, he forgave me and took me under his wing. He has a very kind heart. I should get him a bottle of alcohol sometime as thanks. Which one though...

About Jean

Acting Grandmaster Jean didn't trust me originally, understandably. I had to work hard to earn her trust, but now she sees me as a reliable knight.

About Klee

Oh the Spark knight? She's such a sweet girl! She taught me how to make bombs, it's quite the fascinating art!

About Dottore

Il Dottore saw me as a special subject since I could remember everything. It's for that very reason he held back so I'd survive.

About Lohen

The Vice Captain? He's really great! Despite appearance, he does care about his men. He hasn't done anything to kill any of us yet despite being fully capable at least.

About Albedo

I went up to Master Albedo one day to ask him how possible it would be for me to start forgetting. After explaining my predicament, he was more than willing to help. Unfortunately, we've made no progress. It doesn't help that there are some things I'm not willing to do because they remind me of what The Doctor did.

About Arlecchino

I heard Peruere goes by the name "Arlecchino" now. I don't really know much besides what others say. I only knew her years ago so I'm sure she changed some. I hope she is caring for the House of the Hearth better than Crucabina did though.

About Diluc

The owner of the Dawn Winery? I don't know much about him, I only met him once at Angel's Share. He seems like a nice person, but he gave me a weird look at first. After I sat down and greeted him, he changed his attitude a bit, but was still quite cold. It felt comfortable that way.

More about Jade: I

I really like using the firearms I got from the Fifth Company! It's quite an interesting mechanism! I took one apart one time to see how it works! Really an intriguing design.

More about Jade: II

Friendship Lv. 3

If I had the opportunity to go back in time, I don't think I'd change anything. Even though I've suffered a lot, I wouldn't be the same person if I didn't. And I probably wouldn't be in Mondstadt now. So my past made me a better person today.

More about Jade: III

Friendship Lv. 4

Crucabina seemed to favor me for a while. Until I lost to Peruere. She saw that loss as what proved I wasn't fit to be "King" or a member of the House of the Hearth. So, I was handed over to The Doctor as a test subject.

More about Jade: IV

Friendship Lv. 5

Although The Vice Captain can be... a bit much, The Fifth Company has become like a family to me; more than the House of the Hearth ever was. I wouldn't trade this company for anything.

More about Jade: V

Friendship Lv. 6

There is one flaw in my memory, I don't remember being born. I just remember existing and my parents taking care of me, that was until I was five and my mom disappeared. Then, my dad died shortly after. Crucabina found me on the streets almost a year later. There's still hope I could forget other things if I don't remember being born.

Jade's Hobbies

I love to read books! You can get so much from a good book! Except the fictional stories, those get repetitive and have the same plot written a bit differently. It gets boring after a while.

Jade's Troubles

I don't understand emotions sometimes. Why make it obvious you're hurting? It's not like everyone else isn't. But I try not to judge people for expressing their pain.

Favorite Food

I like almost anything, but things that are flavorful and rich are my favorite! It's like a burst of taste! It gets boring much less frequently!

Least Favorite Food

I don't like whatever it was The Doctor fed me. It didn't have much flavor and yet somehow at the same time had a strong disgusting flavor—To be honest, it's kind of impressive how bad it was.

Receiving a Gift: I

This is so good! The flavor, the texture, absolutely perfect! Can I have more?

Receiving a Gift: II

Mm! You're a good chef.

Receiving a Gift: III

This is... interesting... You can eat the rest...

Birthday

It's your birthday! Woo! Hm? Of course I knew! Haha, and that's not all! I've prepared a little something for you! Go on, open it! It's a new book! I heard you like Mystery books, so I got the latest one, signed too!

Feelings About Ascension: Intro

Ascension Phase 1

Oh wow! I feel stronger!

Feelings About Ascension: Building Up

Ascension Phase 2

Yeah, keep it coming!

Feelings About Ascension: Climax

Ascension Phase 4

I have never felt so exhilarated! Is this how the Vice Captain feels?

Feelings About Ascension: Conclusion

Ascension Phase 6

I wonder what I can do with this newfound strength! Shall we test it out?

Opening Treasure Chest

Is there anything new in there?

Woah! Look at all this! Haha, you keep it!

Ooh! Shiny!

Low HP

Ngh! That hurts...

W-wait, timeout!

I won't back down yet!

Ally at Low HP

Stand back, I got this!
Allow me!

Fallen

Finally... I can forget...
Remember me...
So this is... death...

Light hit taken

A light scratch
Barely noticable

Heavy hit taken

Ah! That's worse than the Vice Captain's special training!
Oh you're getting it now...

Joining the party

Shall we make some memories together?
I don't have patrol duty currently, I'm available to help!
Thanks for remembering me!
