1. Email To Hotel
    - Cat to put in more details by next Friday.
    - Email for #edsg members to look through
    - Target send out by 16 Sept
    - Sham to provide the email address that he had originally created
    - Email to be sent out by the generic email

2. Spirit of #edsg
    - Unspoken norm : Giving and sharing
    - Not so much how much you “get”
    - Critical thinking about current issues policies
    - No personal attack at workspace (No specific organization mentioned)
    - Not for venting and be personal
    - Being critical does not mean being anti-establishment (We still love Singapore :-))

3. Problems of Lurkers
    - They do not participate
    - They are “spying” on us and trying to catch us doing bad.

4. #Asiaed chat
    - Possibility that we can be “parked” under them
    - But still best to keep #edsg as separate as we have come so far (for more than 2 years)

4. Value of #edsg
    - Highlighting current issues
    - Sharing resources
    - Weekly Thematic Chat
    - Getting Help from the community members (e.g. for PLN workshop)
    - Crowdsource of ideas
    - Spontaneous chat due to certain issues posted by member

5. Bitesize Thematic daily Tweet
    - By the community for the community
    - LifeHack type of daily bite-size tweet
    - Can be video/podcast/blogpost
    - Member to decide what to do and the appropriate amount time to put in
    - Do not let this be be a burden
    - Possible ideas include tips to mark faster, or how to connect to the sch wifi in the most efficient manner

6. Tagline for #edsg
    - Brainstorm possible tagline
    - For example, intense conversation in #edsg
7. Putting on hold
    - Educamp
    - App

8. Follow up action
    - Sending out of email for hotel room
    - Proposing ideas for next month discussion
    - Tagline for #edsg
