

Maryland Family Magazine Disclaimer Policy

Effective Date: July 28, 2025

Last Updated: July 28, 2025

Maryland Family Magazine provides informational content on family life, education, health, community events, and more for families in Maryland. This Disclaimer Policy outlines the limitations of our content and services. By accessing our website, magazine, or related materials, you agree to these terms.

1. General Disclaimer

The information provided by Maryland Family Magazine is for general informational and entertainment purposes only. While we strive for accuracy, we make no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, about the completeness, accuracy, reliability, suitability, or availability of the information, products, services, or related graphics contained in our publications or website. Any reliance you place on such information is strictly at your own risk.

We are not responsible for any errors, omissions, or outdated information. Content may be contributed by third parties (e.g., guest writers, advertisers), and opinions expressed do not necessarily reflect those of Maryland Family Magazine.

2. No Professional Advice

Content related to health, wellness, education, legal matters, finance, or career advice is not a substitute for professional advice from qualified experts (e.g., doctors, lawyers, financial advisors, or educators). Always consult a licensed professional for personalized guidance. Maryland Family Magazine is not liable for any actions taken based on our content.

3. Advertising and Sponsored Content

Our magazine and website may include advertisements, sponsored posts, or affiliate links. We do not endorse or guarantee the quality, safety, or efficacy of advertised products/services. Advertisers are solely responsible for their content. If we receive compensation for links or promotions, it will be disclosed (e.g., "#ad" or "#sponsored").

4. External Links

Our site may contain links to third-party websites. We have no control over these sites and are not responsible for their content, privacy practices, or availability. Linking does not imply endorsement.

5. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Maryland Family Magazine, its owners, employees, and affiliates shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages arising from your use of our services, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. This includes, but is not limited to, loss of data, profits, or business interruption.

6. User-Generated Content

If you submit comments, photos, or other content, you grant us a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use it. We are not responsible for user-generated content and may remove it at our discretion.

7. Governing Law

This disclaimer is governed by the laws of the State of Maryland, without regard to conflict of law principles. Any disputes shall be resolved in the courts of Anne Arundel County, Maryland.

8. Changes to This Disclaimer

We may update this policy. Changes will be posted here, and continued use constitutes acceptance.
