

PROFILE

I am a freelancer who has done a number of jobs, all of which were completed to customer satisfaction. I grew up in Israel, and the schools I attended were mostly Hebrew speaking. My family speaks English at home, and English is the language I read for pleasure. I am fluent in both languages, and read and write in both languages on a professional level.

Writing has been an interest of mine for most of my life. (In fact, I wrote over a hundred pages of a personal project of my own, although that project has been temporarily put on hold due to the demands of work and Yeshiva.) I know how to present information clearly, and how to make a subject interesting.
