

Science Misconception Correction Video Presentation Script

Misconception: Add misconception here.

All questions should be restated before answering as shown below.

1. Introductory statement. (Add first name and state)

My name is ____ from _____. My video is about a common science misconception and I'd like to Set it Straight!

2. What is the common misconception you researched? (1-2 sentences maximum)

This is the common misconception that I researched. _____.

3. Why do you think this is a common misconception? (2-3 sentences maximum)

I think this is a common misconception because _____.

4. Identify two or three important facts necessary to correct this misconception. (2-3 sentences maximum)

These are the ____ important facts necessary to correct this misconception. List the facts.

5. Explain how these facts refute the misconceptions? (2-3 sentences maximum)

These facts refute the misconceptions by _____.

6. Why should anyone believe the facts you have presented? (2-3 sentences maximum)

These facts are credible because they were all found in the following peer-reviewed science resources: _____

7. Closing statement.

Thanks for watching.