

Dear Families,

I'm excited to share with you our classroom behavior plan for this year. My goal is to create a positive, safe, and respectful learning environment where every student can be successful. The plan is below this letter for your reference.

Our Expectations

We will focus on three simple rules:

1. Be respectful (to yourself, others, and our classroom).
2. Be responsible (make good choices and take care of materials).
3. Be ready to learn (listen, follow directions, and try your best).

How It Works

- Positive behavior will be recognized with praise, class incentives, and individual rewards.
- If a student has difficulty following expectations, we use reminders and opportunities to make better choices.
- Continued challenges may result in a brief reflection time, a note home, or a phone call so we can work together.

Our Goal

This plan is designed to help students learn self-control, make responsible choices, and contribute to a supportive classroom community.

Thank you for partnering with me in helping your child succeed both academically and socially. Please reach out if you have any questions!

Sincerely,
Janelle El Ghazouani

Our Classroom Behavior Plan

We follow the GMS School Code of Conduct every day.

In Social Studies, this means we:

- Respect ourselves, others, and our classroom.
 - Take responsibility for our words and actions.
 - Follow directions the first time.
 - Stay on task and be prepared to learn.

What Happens if Behavior Goes Off Track

1. Reminder – Teacher will give a quick reminder of the expectation.
 2. Yellow Card – If behavior continues, you will get a yellow card as a warning.
 3. Second Yellow Card – If it happens again, you may change seats or lose a privilege.
 4. Office/Parent Contact – Continued issues or serious behavior will lead to a call home and/or an office referral.

Positive Behavior

When you follow the Code of Conduct, you can earn:

- ★ Praise and recognition
- ★ Homework Passes
- ★ Positive note, email, or phone call home
- ★ “Virtue Shoutouts” for showing honesty, integrity, kindness, respect, loyalty, and more!
