

High Quality Teaching and Librarians

Elements of High Quality Teaching	HQT Opportunities for Librarians
Relationship Driven Intentionally rooted in positive and productive relationships by... - Supporting the development of the whole learner - Building trust and a sense of security and belonging - Communicating and collaborating with others skillfully - Creating a culturally responsive and accepting environment	Relationship Driven Intentionally rooted in positive and productive relationships by... - Creating a safe environment that is welcoming and friendly - Collaborating with the entire learning community to enhance student learning. - Building a diverse library collection that represents every student and various interests - Soliciting students' feedback about their interests and types of activities they would like to be available
Results Focused Relentlessly pursues student success by... - Ensuring high expectations for every student in both character and academics - Monitoring student progress and celebrating student growth - Providing targeted support that is responsive to student needs - Working interdependently in thriving professional learning community that promotes collective efficacy	Results Focused Relentlessly pursues student success by... - Providing instruction about available online resources and how they support curriculum - Digital citizenship and research readiness instruction for students and teachers - intentionally collaborating with teachers and instructional specialists to align library resources with curricular needs. - Co-teaching with other educators on campus
Intentionally Personalized Thoughtfully tailors learning for each student's strengths, needs and passions by... - Utilizing expertise to explore and create personalized learning plans and pathways - Leveraging technology to innovate, connect, share and enhance collaboration - Exchanging effective feedback in order to continuously improve and grow	Intentionally Personalized Thoughtfully tailors learning for each student's strengths, needs and passions by... - Providing guidance to available resources that support students' learning pathways. - Serving as a technology resource and collaborate with Digital Learning Specialists - Soliciting input from students and teachers about types of materials, programming and instruction that would be beneficial
Student Owned Skillfully empowers student agency and enables voice and choice in learning by... - Fostering a classroom culture of risk-taking, innovation, and self-reflection - Providing engaging learning experiences driven by challenging, student-centered goals - Building networks to enhance engagement, relevance, and global connectedness - Inspiring a lifelong, insatiable desire to learn	Student Owned Skillfully empowers student agency and enables voice and choice in learning by... - Providing makerspace activities for students to problem solve, take risks, fail forward, reflect, and pursue passions - Guiding students in locating resources that are related to their passions - Encouraging love of reading by offering a diverse collection, hosting book clubs (virtually or in person), reading incentives, and author visits (virtually or in person) - Using self-check to empower independent library use and privacy

Every Klein ISD Library:

- Offers programming to encourage the lifelong love of reading
- Provides opportunities to participate in makerspace activities
- Gives students and teachers the ability to self-check their own materials
- Provides instruction in digital citizenship and research readiness skills
- Offers instruction in online resources that are available for assignments
- Serves as a technology resource for the campus