Kicking' it for Cancer

- A discussion was had regarding PSOA's participation in the annual KIFC tournament. It was stated that this is a charitable event to promote cancer awareness along with the opportunity for referee development and mentorship to kick off the spring season.

USSF Referee Abuse Policy

- At the previous executive committee meeting, the board members voted unanimously to adopt a standard of the new USSF Referee Abuse Policy across our contracted leagues.

VHSL

- This meeting's primary focus was pertaining to the upcoming high school season. The members went over the VHSL rules. They had discussions regarding, but not limited to, players' sock colors, use of illegal/ improper equipment such as shin guard size, concussion management, post-game expectations of the referee team, and more.
