11/4/2025

Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance

- Students, please remember you are no longer able to use your phones in class. If you do not have a Chromebook, see Mrs. Hughes. Staff, please provide students with paper copies.
- Students remember the RCS Dress Code. No hats, hoods, do-rags, or wraps are allowed. In addition, No pajamas and No bellies should be showing. Students please leave your blankets at home, no blankets should be carried or worn to class.
- Staff–At this time, please help us out by conducting a dress code check. Any students in violation, please send them to the office.
- If you've never taken an RCC class as a high school student and want to enroll for the Spring 2026 semester, scan the QR codes posted around school or check Canvas to sign up for November registration meetings. Registration meetings are scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 18th. The deadline to sign up is this Friday, Nov. 7th.
- Unified Basketball Applications can be picked up outside of Mr. Hardin's Classroom. All applications are due back to Mr. Hardin by Nov. 18.
- Vote for Functional Skills pet cow, Fancy, to be America's Favorite Calf during your lunch period Tuesday and Wednesday. You may also vote by scanning the QR codes on Fancy's campaign posters hung throughout the building.
- DECA (business and marketing) club meets Wednesday, Nov 5, 7:45-8:15 am in Mrs Bardsley's room 111. The competition practice and our Fall Service project will be discussed. Come early for a fresh breakfast treat.
- 9th and 11th graders, a CTE survey has been posted on your grade level Canvas pages.
   Please take a moment to complete the survey as it helps fund our elective programs!
- Make plans to attend our first round of the state playoff football game THIS Friday at 7:00 here at your cougar stadium. Come out and support the team and show your cougar pride! Plenty of good food in concessions so come hungry
- If you need volunteer hours. We need YOU in concessions this Friday night.
- On Monday Nov 3 Ty Booker, Will Moore, Jordyn McMillian and Braxton Moody competed in the FFA Regional Truck and Tractor Driving Contest. Ty Booker placed 1st in the federation and will advance to the State Contest in Raleigh.
- The next FFA meeting will be Thursday Nov 13 after school in the cafeteria from 3:30-4:30pm. This meeting will focus on FFA CDE and LDE opportunities!
- Attention All Early Early Graduates!

If you are planning to graduate early and begin college in January 2026 (Spring Semester), it is critical that you submit proof of college enrollment to the guidance office no later than Friday November 14th .This documentation is required to process your early graduation and ensure you are officially graduated from high school in time to start your college classes in January.