

Dear Dummy007, You are Mega Shark

You made your appearance in the monster movie Mega Shark vs. Giant Octopus in 2009. This terribad movie was about you fighting GIANT OCTOPUS. It was a crime against humanity but seeing as a Mega Shark like you has been frozen in ice, you joined the Sea Creatures Frozen in Ice to take over the world.

Every Night, you may pm Yeti and kingofkongs with the message "NX - Plunge user to the bottom of the ocean". You will submerge user underneath the ocean, causing them to not be able to talk inside or outside the thread for the next full cycle.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with the message "NX - Show USER my powerful bite". You will show that user the strength of your bite, which will scare them into dropping their role PM before you.

You currently have no item.

You are allied with the SCFil. You win if the SCFil eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SALTS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your faction details are in the next pm.

Quote: I'm a Shark. I'm a Shark. Suck my dick! I'm a shark.

Dear Red Kryal, You are Giant Octopus

You made your appearance in the monster movie Mega Shark vs. Giant Octopus in 2009. This terribad movie was about you fighting MEGA SHARK. It was a crime against humanity but seeing as a Giant Octopus like you has been frozen in ice, you joined the Sea Creatures Frozen in Ice to take over the world.

Every night, you may pm Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Wrap tentacles around user". Your mighty tentacles will guard user from all night actions against them. However, killers will be able to break through your mighty tentacles.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Squirt Ink at user" User will become entranced by your ink, forcing them to include whatever you state in the body of your PM in every post they make for the rest of the game. Example: they can only speak in Spanish or must insist UncleSam is mafia.

You currently hold Chunk of Ice. This item allows you to break off parts of it during the day and give it to user. Any user that holds a part of Chunk of Ice will not be able to complete their action until they get rid of it. It can be stolen and is Unlimited use.

You are allied with the SCFil. You win if the SCFil eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SALTS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your faction details are in the next pm.

Quote: I'd like to be under the sea in an octopus' garden in the shade

Dear Walrein, You are Dunkleosteus

You're a prehistoric creature with a bite that rivals the T-Rex and Crocodile in terms of power. You're so powerful, you were forced to be frozen in ice for the safety of humanity. Due to this, you decided to join the Sea Creatures Frozen in Ice to take over the world.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Protect user with my mighty jaws". You will guard user with your mighty bite, scaring anyone from killing them.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Swim towards user". You will swim towards user, who will flee in panic, giving you time to steal any item that can be stolen from them.

Also, once during the game, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Bite Down on the Bullet. Hard". This will stop that day's lynch from occurring.

You currently hold the decoy sands. What could this item do? You don't know. It can be stolen and you can't use it.

You are allied with the SCFil. You win if the SCFil eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SALTS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your faction details are in the next pm.

Quote: Dunkleosteus do it better

Dear RoyIII, You are Plesiosaurus

You are a large marine animal that lived in the early Jurassic period that looks like a giant sea turtle. You made your first movie appearance in the movie The Land that Time Forgot, which is based on a 1924 novel on the same name. Long story short, things didn't turn out well for you, so you decided to get revenge by joining the Sea Creatures Frozen in Ice to take over the world.

Every night, you may pm Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Show user some turtle power". You will use your turtle powers on user, preventing them from completing any night actions

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Use ninja Plesiosaurus powers on user". Using your amazing powers, you will be able to read user's day result(s).

You currently have no item

You are allied with the SCFil. You win if the SCFil eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SALTS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your faction details are in the next pm.

Quote: Roar muffled by water

Dear Suicidal Pikachu, You are Santa

You're a fat man who works one day a year with a large slave labor force making toys for you so you can keep up public appearances. Life is good. However, you're running out of money to buy all of the materials needed to make toys for a third of the world. When the SNOWS came to you and gave you the opportunity to do even less work without going into bankruptcy, you immediately agreed to join the SNOWS in order to take over the world.

Every night, you may pm Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Have user sit on my lap". You will entice that user to sit on your lap with a present, then lock the door, and what happens next, well, let's just say they won't be able to complete their night action.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Get elves to make X" Where X is anything you choose. The elves will produce an item that has no effect of the same name.

You currently hold Present. This item allows you to take control of a user's action. To use it, PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Present user". If user opens your present, you will take control of their action for the next day phase. It can be stolen and has unlimited use.

You are allied with the SNOWS. You win if the SNOWS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SNOWS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your faction details are in the next pm.

Quote: Ho, ho, ho.

Dear Empoof, You are Woolly Mammoth

You're a giant, prehistoric, hairy beast that lived during the Ice Age. You wanted to get revenge on the humans who hunted you down, but the Sea Creatures Frozen in Ice wouldn't accept you due to your mammalian qualities. When the SNOWS came to you and offered you money, fame, and power, you immediately accepted to help the SNOWS take over the world.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Wrap user in my furry coat". That user will be sheltered by your furry coat, preventing anyone from killing them.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Ram user". You will ram user, disorienting them enough to cause their vote to count for -1 without them knowing.

You currently have no item

You are allied with the SNOWS. You win if the SNOWS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SNOWS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your faction details are in the next pm.

Quote: I maybe frozen, but I'm not dead yet!

Dear Nightmare Jigglypuff, you are Princess Leia

You're the princess of Aldaran who was captured by Darth Vader, then rescued by your brother to lead the Rebel Forces. While you were on Hoth fighting the Sith, you were contacted by the SNOWS to join in their struggle. You first refused, but when they offered you the chance to not be in any of the prequels, you immediately accepted to help the SNOWS take over the world.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Give user's plans to R2D2" You will put user's plans into R2D2, causing everyone targeting them to go after R2D2 instead. When they cannot find him, they'll give up on their action. This won't work against killers though, since they aren't after user's plans.

Additionally, every day you may pm Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Send Ewok's to collect user's role pm" You will send a highly trained squad of ninja Ewoks to grab user's role pm and give it to you.

You currently hold the Decoy WEBS. What could this item do? You don't know. It can be stolen and you can't use it.

You are allied with the SNOWS. You win if the SNOWS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SNOWS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your faction details are in the next pm.

Quote: I don't know who you are or where you came from, but from now on you'll do as I tell you, okay?

Dear Greenwater10, you are Big Red from ST11

Your scientific name is the Hengrauggi, but that's too difficult to pronounce, so we'll just call you Big Red, considering you're a giant ugly red lobster snow monster from Delta Vega. You were so close to killing Kirk, but that <snip>ing Vulcan Spock saved him before you could kill him. Pissed off, you were looking for revenge. When the SNOWS contacted you about using your strength, you immediately accepted to help the SNOWS take over the world.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Trap user in my cave" You will force user into a cave, keeping them there for a full cycle before letting them go.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Chase user". User will <snip> their pants in fear and run away from you. While they do this, all their items in their pockets will drop out and you will pick them up.

Additionally, once during the game, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - O Hai guyz" You will appear, and when everyone sees you and your freaky tongue thing, they will freak the <snip> out and run away from town center, stopping the lynch.

You currently have no item

You are allied with the SNOWS. You win if the SNOWS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SNOWS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your faction details are in the next pm.

Quote: BLAARAGHHARAAAU

Dear Maxim, you are Krakatoa

You're a mother<snip>ing volcano, and you don't care what anybody else thinks. Why should you? You're a cold blooded murderer, having killed a total of 40,000 people and producing the loudest sound ever produced. So loud in fact, that none of the factions even tried to recruit you. In any case, you decided to get your revenge on the lot of them, especially the SNOWS.

Every other night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - KRAKATOA user". That user will die a lava-y death.

Every night, you also may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Explode near user". You will explode near user, and if user kills you during the night, you may revive yourself any time you want by posting "I'M A VOLCANO MOFO" in the thread. You will be revived at the next update.

Also every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - BOOM user". You will make very loud noises near user, preventing them from completing their action.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Use Volcano magic on user" You will use your magical volcano powers to receive user's role pm.

Also, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Send primitive tribal natives after user". You will send members of a tribe that worships you to steal any of that user's items that can be stolen.

You currently hold a One-time BPV. If you are targeted with a kill, this will block the first attempt. After this is used, it will not save you again. This cannot be stolen and activates automatically. You also hold the SALTS, which you know is necessary for the SCFil to win. You can't use it and it can be stolen.

Though you hate the SNOWS and delight at the thought of melting all of them, and you hate most of the factions as well, there is one you have no conflict with. You know that Muk, a member of the MUDS, is Fire Blast, someone you are on good terms with.

You are allied with yourself. You win if the SNOWS are all dead. Additionally, the SANDS, SCFil, and the GTFO must lose, as well as your fellow wolves.

Quote: KRAKATOA!

Dear Hydrattler, you are Charlie Sheen

You're not Thomas Jefferson, he was a pussy. You have tiger blood and Adonis DNA. You're a coke addict who makes way too much money for a <snip>y TV show, you're Charlie Sheen. The factions wanted to side with you, but you warned them that if they tried you, their faces would melt off and their children would weep over their exploded bodies.

Every other night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Have user try Charlie Sheen". That user will try you, causing their face to melt off, killing them.

Every night, you may also PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - I'm bi-winning user!" You will be bi-winning near user, making sure that if they kill you, you can revive yourself later in the game at any time you want by posting "Duh, winning" in the thread.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Show user my goddesses". You will show user your amazingly hot ex-girlfriends, causing them to not be able to complete their night action.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - It's called battle tested bayonets, user". You will show user your prized collection of bayonets, and while they're distracted, you will get their role pm.

Also, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Sell user some Charlie Sheen". You will sell user some Charlie Sheen, and in order to pay for it, they will give you any items they happen to be carrying.

You currently hold a One-time BPV. If you are targeted with a kill, this will block the first attempt. After this is used, it will not save you again. This cannot be stolen and activates automatically. You also hold the SANDS, which you know is necessary for the SANDS to win. You can't use it and it can be stolen.

Though you hate the GTFO because they are basement dwelling weak trolls, and you hate most of the factions as well, there is one you have no conflict with (and haven't pissed off yet). You know that Mega Shark, a member of the SCFiI, is Dummy007, someone you are on good terms with.

You are allied with yourself. You win if the GTFO are dead. Additionally, the MUDS, SANDS, and SNOWS must lose.

Quote: I was banging seven-gram rocks, because that's how I roll. I have one speed, I have one gear: Go.

Dear Alina, you are Serebii

You are a fat <snip>. Utterly useless and entirely oblivious, you run notable Pokemon information site serebii.net, as well as its terribly corrupt and idiotic communities, SPPf and the #spp chat. Because you are a deluded 20-something no-lifer who has no friends or women irl, and never will, you are a prime candidate for the GTFO Forums, since you don't take care of yours anyway.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Pretend I'm Celebi and use Safeguard on user". You will pull out your Pokemon Platinum with your hacked shiny Celebi and have it use Safeguard, which will Safeguard that user for the night and prevent all actions targeted at them, sans kills, from succeeding.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Crash the forums to IP trace user". You will suspect that user of being a notable troll who hates your crappy website and have an IP trace run on them, which will take all day but give you their role PM.

You currently have no item.

You are allied with the GTFO Forums. You win if the GTFO eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the WEBS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: I would have gay sex with Dragonite.

Dear Fancy Sceptile, you are E-Romance Fags

You are a couple of dolts who think that falling in love over the internet will ever work out. A notable example on Smogon is Lanturn and Morm, a couple hideous idiots who met on a Pokemon forum. Every sensible member of the other factions, and even neutrals on their own, thinks you are too stupid to be of any service to them, except the GTFO Forums, which describes you perfectly.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Take user with us when we meet irl". You will plan a meeting irl so you can have nasty ugly-people sex in person, as opposed to over the phone, and take that user with you, which will kidnap them for upcoming day and night cycle.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Get clingy to user". You will become creepily obsessed with that user and everything about them, following them about, which will let you track who they targeted and also if they were successful in their endeavor.

You currently have no item.

You are allied with the GTFO Forums. You win if the GTFO eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the WEBS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: /me pours e-girl coffee.

Dear Jared, you are a Married Person

You are someone who put a ring on it irl, and maybe even has kids, yet you waste hours frequenting a forum or five talking about crappy games for kids or teens. Sometimes your internet addiction even leads to divorce because you just plain don't get it, also you are probably kind of ugly so your wife finds someone less offensive. You didn't really want to be on the GTFO Forums, because you didn't see anything wrong with your dipstick lifestyle, but no other faction would take you, and the name certainly applies.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Talk about my spouse around user". You will ramble on about the person you live with, but neglect by spending half your day online, around that user, which will dissuade any hardcore warriors who have come around to kill them.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Have my spouse make an account for user". You will somehow convince your spouse to make an account, which duplicates that user and allows them to use their action twice.

You currently hold the Decoy MUDS. What could this item do? You don't know. It can be stolen and you can't use it.

You are allied with the GTFO Forums. You win if the GTFO eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the WEBS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: Yeah man, I really love my wife, but they just updated WoW and, you know dude, that's way more important.

Dear Blazikenmaster-Zeo, you are a Camwhore

You are the typical attention-starved lunatic who thinks that by spamming your, almost always, ugly face across internet communities, you will be loved. I'm pretty sure I don't have to name your most notable Smogon example, you started thinking of her the moment you read your role name. Although you are great at being slutty, none of the other factions wanted your trashy kind representing them, so only the GTFO Forums would take you.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Creepily stalk user irl and get it on with them". You will meet up with that user irl and because you will do anything for attention, you'll have sex with them, which will hook them (quite literally) for the night.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Take a memento of user". You will hope you can get the attention you so desire in jail or by being a thief, so you will take that user's item(s), if they can be stolen.

Also, once during the game, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Show your titties off". This will stop that day's lynch from occurring due to nude pics of you getting out.

You currently hold a Webcam. This item allows you to watch and track a certain user at night, by PMing, "NX - Stalk user via Webcam". It can be stolen and has unlimited use.

You are allied with the GTFO Forums. You win if the GTFO eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the WEBS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: photo was NOT doctored.

Dear Fire Blast, you are Muk

You are a convicted serial rapist, guilty of multiple charges of sexual molestation of victims of all ages, also a giant clump of sludge. What your chemical composition is, is a mystery, but it is a prime combination of filth. Your name is only one letter away from 'MUD', making you a prime candidate to join their faction, for GLORY.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Take user for rape". You will drag that user into your sludgy girth and do work, despite how much they struggle, which will kidnap them for a day/night cycle

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Send Grimers to swap USER1's target for USER2". You will send your smaller brethren, Grimer, to replace the first user's intended target with the second user, which will redirect them.

You currently have no item.

You are allied with the MUDS REBELS. You win if the MUDS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the MUDS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: MUUUUUUUK.

Dear King N, you are Challenge Accepted

You are never afraid to back down from a challenge, no matter how unfortunate the results may be. You have been a minor player for the Rageguy Conglomeration of reaction faces before, but now the real game begins: you as the main rep. When the MUDS requested you step up to support the Rageguys, your response was, of course, CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – You think you'll kill user?". You will accept the challenge of fending off every assassin who would DARE to approach that user, which will keep them safe from kills all night.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Practice superpickpocket skills on user". You will accept the challenge of becoming the best superthief ever, so you will take that user's item(s), if they can be stolen.

Also, once during the game, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - CHALLENGE THIS, TRICK". This will stop that day's lynch from occurring due to your legendary lynch-stopping talents.

You currently have no item. (Challenge accepted to gain one)

You are allied with the MUDS REBELS. You win if the MUDS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the MUDS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: Challenge accepted.

Dear Paradoxus, you are Sara Sidle

You are the on-again, off-again CSI agent from hit-but-fading CBS cop drama, CSI, currently the oldest of its cloned procedural lineup. You got smacked up by the Dollhouse Killer a fair bit, went away, then came back and married Gil, only for him to go away. Because you were stuck in the desert, you hate SANDS, and there's no STARS this time around, so you decided to hop on board with the SANDS' longtime arch-enemy, the MUDS.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Pretend user is Gil". You will tape a mask of your husband's face over that user's and make yourself believe they are Gil for the night, which will hook them due to night-long sex due to your deprived sex life due to his living in foreign country due to his actor leaving the show (spoilers).

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Use super CSI skills on user". You will make use of your television crime-solver talents and dig up dirt on that user, which will provide you with their full role PM.

You currently hold the Decoy SALTS. What could this item do? You don't know. It can be stolen and you can't use it.

You are allied with the MUDS REBELS. You win if the MUDS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the MUDS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: Hey, Grissom. Can you come tape me up?.

Dear ribeye, you are NBC

You are the weakest of the main four broadcasting networks and nobody really feels sorry for you. You used to be so successful and skew young, dictating the target demo these days, but then your comedy blocks fell apart and your only remotely-successful drama these days (mostly due to your incompetence as a network) is Law & Order: SVU, which is about to get boned by one of your teammates' shows, the Great CSI. You went bankrupt after the initial SANDS ACQUISITIONS, INC. vs MUDS REBELS conflicts, but the MUDS bought up your remaining assets.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Change user's schedule so much nobody can find them". You will constantly change when that user appears where during the night, much like you do with your shows so nobody can ever watch them, which will deter everyone trying to target them except killers, who will be determined to track them through your chaotic schedule changes.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Cast user in a bad show". You will think a terrible show concept is actually good and ask that user to star in it, which will negate their vote because everyone will think they're a joke for being associated with the project.

You currently hold a Good Show Script. This item is such a good script, it gives the holder a second vote (not that you'd know what to do with a good script, since you're NBC). It can be stolen and is always in use during the day.

You are allied with the MUDS REBELS. You win if the MUDS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the MUDS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: We really can't understand why a spinoff show we pulled to retool, after lying and prematurely canceling its mothership, then put back on the air months later against two fellow procedurals in a different timeslot, got destroyed in the ratings. Or why we had to cancel it.

Dear Human, you are Garchomp

You are the most ferocious bannedmon of all time (or at least since Gen 4). A menacing land shark who, thanks to Yache, can survive even the most threatening of Blizzards, you dwell in the sand and fly and do really cool <snip>. Because SANDS boost your evasion and crap, you naturally would enjoy a SANDS-coated world, with the SANDS.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – SHOW WHY YOU'RE BANNED AROUND user". You will start using all your sick moves (EQ/Outrage/etc) around that user and look so strength, which will ward off anyone who was intending to target that user, unless they are a killer as your flashy moves will not dissuade a man bent on slaying.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Show user your wingfinthings". You will demonstrate why you are the biggest, baddest Garchomp around by threatening that user with your large blades, which will intimidate them too much to post at all the next day.

You currently have no item.

You are allied with the SANDS ACQUISITIONS, INC. You win if the SANDS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SANDS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: GARCHOMP, TRICK.

Dear Mithril, you are Michael Bolton

THIS IS THE TALE, OF MICHAEL BOLTON. A LOVE BALLAD SINGER, VOICE SO SUAVE. JOINED UP WITH THE SANDS, CAUSE THAT'S WHAT JACK SPARROW WOULD DO. GONNA WIN THE GAME IN HONOR OF HIS FAVORITE MOVIIIIIES.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Sing a touching song around user". You will pull one of your greatest hits out of the archives and sing in the vicinity of that user, which will calm even the angriest of killers and bodyguard that user for the night.

Additionally, every day your many fans will hunt around the town for news, rumors and clues as to who died overnight. They will tell you the killer of half the deaths, rounded up if there is an odd number.

You currently hold a Pile of Cocaine. This item controls millions thanks to its addictive powers, allowing you to send a PM every night with "NX - Sell USER1 cocaine for their vote for USER2". This will cause the first user to vote for the second the next day. It can be stolen and is unlimited use.

You are allied with the SANDS ACQUISITIONS, INC. You win if the SANDS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SANDS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: THIS IS THE TALE, OF CAPTAIN JACK SPARROW.

Dear danmantincan, you are Lady Gaga

You are a pop superstar, though you've been going downhill with each album trying too hard to get popular via gimmicks and causes. Some say you are not even a lady, and your answers to that vary: putting crappy scenes in your 'Telephone' video and claiming you hide a donkey dick'. Because your third album was so mediocre and tryhard acceptance freedom above it all rubbish, you were called upon to represent the traditional SANDS Really Bad Artists squadron of elite but talentless agents.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Show user my supposed donkey dick". You will lock that user in a room with you and strip, revealing to them your actual gender then engaging in sexual relations regardless of theirs, which will occupy them the entire night, hooking them.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - Send little monsters to take user's possessions". You will ask your most devotedly obsessed fans to mob them and raid their pockets, so you will take that user's item(s), if they can be stolen.

Also, once during the game, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX - RISE LITTLE MONSTERS". This will stop that day's lynch from occurring due to your monsters swarming the town.

You currently hold the Decoy SNOWS. What could this item do? You don't know. It can be stolen and you can't use it.

You are allied with the SANDS ACQUISITIONS, INC. You win if the SANDS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SANDS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Quote: I wanna take a ride on your disco stick.

Dear iss, you are a Lizard with Downs

You are one of those examples of genetics gone wrong, in reptile form. A mentally unwell lizard, things just aren't right with you, but you've apparently managed to make it this far in life, so you'll make it some more. You are a native of arid, deserty climates, so naturally you wanted to join up with the SANDS.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Show user your tarantula friend". You will ask that user to join you on a pleasant stroll through the desert, though when they get to the trapdoor spider's lair, things won't be so pleasant, which will kidnap them for a day/night cycle until your friend has had his fun.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Blankly stare at user". You will combine the large eyes of a lizard, the ability to rotate your pupils in different directions, and the creepy downs expression, which will freak that user out so much they will give you their role PM in exchange for being left alone.

You currently hold have no item.

You are allied with the SANDS ACQUISITIONS, INC. You win if the SANDS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the SANDS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.

Dear J-Man, you are Tupac

You're one of the most popular rap artists ever, selling over 75 million albums, making you one of the best selling artists of all time, of all time! You're also part of the BLOODS, but since they all got shot up by the CRIPS, who also all got shot up, (by some random Chinese guys, but that's another story) you're going at this by yourself.

Every other night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Drive by user". You will get some of your remaining homies to drive by user in a low-rider, filling their chest with 37 bullets.

Additionally, every night you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Recreate my death with user". If user kills you, you will be prepared for it and will be able to resurrect yourself at any time during the game by posting “Funny thing about BLOODS, we always rise to the top” in the thread.

Every night you may also PM Yeti and kingofkongs with “NX - Show user some California Love”. You will show them all the wonders of beautiful California, before taking them to your apartment and <snip>ing the <snip> out of them.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with “DX – Send some polite Homies to loot threw user’s house”. You will send some of your remaining homies to tear up user’s house in order to find his role pm. They will put their house back together though because they’re all rather polite.

Also, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with “DX – Send some rather rude Homies to loot threw user’s house”. You will steal all the items user has, since these guys are all kind of <snip>s.

You currently hold a One-time BPV. If you are targeted with a kill, this will block the first attempt. After this is used, it will not save you again. This cannot be stolen and activates automatically. You also hold the MUDS, which you know is necessary for the MUDS to win. You can’t use it and it can be stolen.

Though you hate SANDS because they are honky <snip>es who don’t like any kind of rap music, and you hate most of the other factions as well, there is one you have no conflict with. You know that Serebii, a member of the GTFO is Alina, someone you are on good terms with.

You are allied with yourself. You win if the SANDS are dead. Additionally, the MUDS, SCFil, and the SNOWS must lose, as well as your fellow wolves.

Dear auramaster, You are MR. SANDSMAN

The undeniable, lovable, power hungry but proven genius head of SANDS ACQUISITIONS, INC., you have many clones in storage in case your untimely death should be so discourteous as to appear. Unfortunately for you, the SNOWS and STARS destroyed your clones facility, leaving only one of them, you. You have become paranoid about making your existence public, since the SNOWS and STARS may attempt to kill you again. Due to this, you are allied with yourself for the rest of this game.

Every other night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with “NX – Track user down into a dark alleyway”. You will take out a pistol with jewels embedded into it and shoot user in the face. This will cause them to die.

Additionally, every night you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Send a stunt double after user". If user tries to kill you, your stunt double will take your place, and you will go into hiding, which for the purposes of this game means dead, until you post "Don't <snip> with the god <snip> CEO" upon which you will come out of hiding and be revived.

Every night you may also PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Give user some of my classy broads". You will send out an elite team of classy broads that you have been traveling with for these many months, who will surround user and rape them, preventing them from doing their night action.

Every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Set fire to user's clothes". You will take out your solid gold lighter, imported from Russia of course, to light user's clothes on fire. Not wanting to die, they will take off all their clothes and run away, during which you will receive user's full role pm.

Also, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Show user's items a much nicer vault". You will lock all items user may have into your solid gold vault. It may not keep out thieves, but it looks <snip>ing.

You currently hold a One-time BPV. If you are targeted with a kill, this will block the first attempt. After this is used, it will not save you again. This cannot be stolen and activates automatically. You also hold the SNOWS, which you know is necessary for the SNOWS to win. You can't use it and it can be stolen.

Though you hate MUDS for toppling your corporate empire, and you hate most of the other factions as well, there is one of your old associates who you have no conflict with. You know that Garchomp, a loyal member of the SANDS is Human, someone you are on good terms with.

You are allied with yourself. You win if the MUDS are dead. Additionally, the GTFO, SNOWS, and SCFil must lose, as well as your fellow wolves.

Quote: Hey MR. SANDSMAN, bring me a dream.

Dear Lady Salamence, you are a Cloned Velociraptor

For the laughs, the STARS decided to put a velociraptor skull into MR.SANDSMAN's cloning machines, and viola, you were born. The STARS trained you to be a natural born predator, well ok they trained you to be a movie star for the Jurassic Park series, mainly showing you how to always aim for the crotch, before releasing you back into the wild to be free after Jurassic Park 3. It was hard to survive out there, things aren't how they used to be, and you had no friends, but the STARS wouldn't take you back, you had your 15 minutes of fame, so you ate all of them and that's why they aren't here, and now you're going it alone.

Every other night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX - Aim for user's crotch". You will sink your teeth into user's crotch in a more horrific scene than can possibly be described, killing them.

Additionally, every night you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Become extinct near user" You will become extinct near user, and if user targets you with a kill that night, you will die, but you can revive yourself by posting "I'd like to thank the scientists at Cinnabar island" in the thread.

Every night, you may also PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Play Fetch with user". You will play fetch with user, and since no one can resist playing fetch with a <snip>ing velociraptor, they will be unable to complete their night action.

Every day, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Philociraptor user". You will ask user a series of philosophical questions, from which you will piece together that user's full role pm.

Also, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Search user's house for the STARS". In your search for any lingering STARS to feast on, you will come across all items user has and take them for yourself.

You currently hold a One-time BPV. If you are targeted with a kill, this will block the first attempt. After this is used, it will not save you again. This cannot be stolen and activates automatically. You also hold the WEBS, which you know is necessary for the GTFO to win. You can't use it and it can be stolen.

Though you hate SCFil for acting like they're the best prehistoric creatures, and you hate most of the other factions as well, there is one you have no conflict with. You know that Santa Claus, a member of the SNOWS is Suicidal Pikachu, someone you are on good terms with.

You are allied with yourself. You win if the SCFil are dead and the SANDS, MUDS, and GTFO lose, as well as your fellow wolves.

Quote: If you believe in Raptor Jesus, your soul will be saved. Also, you will not have your internal organs ripped out.

Dear kingofkongs, you are Grim

After losing a bet over a sick hamster in the game of limbo, you were forced to become two children's best friend forever, for eternity. However, instead of being normal best friends, you're forced to clean up the idiot Billy's mess as well as being the heartless <snip> Mandy's friend-slave. And how you hate everything and everyone in Endsville, which is why after you were able to get rid of the contract in court you brutally slaughtered everyone in Endsville, only to end up hosting a mafia game with Queen Elizabeth's Clone, who you know to be Yeti.

Every Night, (or day depending on when someone's not sending in their actions) you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "N/DX – Show user the business end of my scythe" You will cut user up into tiny little bits, cutting them up so badly they can never be repaired.

Additionally, every day (or night depending on when I want to troll somebody) you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "N/DX – Put user1's soul in user2's body" You will cut out user2's soul and fill user1's soul in user2's body, subbing them in.

You currently hold the Scythe. As long as you hold this, you can neither confirm nor deny any player's request.

You are allied with the Hosts; you win if the game ends successfully. In addition, UncleSam may not be subbed in under any condition.

Look at me, I'm a kitty cat! I wear a bowl of peanuts for a hat. If I eat them all, I will get fat. Blah blah blah, I'm a kitty caaaaat!

Dear Yeti, you are Queen Elizabeth's Clone

You are the clone of England's Queen, the lone survivor of the entire UK when it was heartlessly bombed in an early SANDS vs MUDS conflict. You fight for your tea, crumpets, polo ponies and cricket games, all of which were lost when Britain was reduced to nothing and sank. Because you were stored in one of England's colonies for safe-keeping, you survived, but you hate the SANDS and the MUDS for destroying the motherland, and the other factions have just pissed on its grave, so you joined up with the DEADS under the assumption you were a zombie.

Every night, you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "NX – Tally ho, user, jolly good show". You will invite that user along for a fox hunt on your fox hunting horses, however you will shoot them instead of the fox when you finally find it, which will cause them to lose all memory of the events before this and when they wake up, they won't know how to do any of their actions anymore.

Additionally, every day you may PM Yeti and kingofkongs with "DX – Make user a knight". You will pull out your crusty old sword and tap that user on the head, which will bring them into the knighthood and give them a second vote, because knights are notable individuals.

You currently hold the Teacup. You can sip tea from this.

You are allied with the DEADS. You win if the DEADS eliminate all threats. Additionally, you must gain access to the BRAINS, and all living team members at the time of winning must have held it, in addition to it currently being in your possession. Your team's details are in the next PM.
