

GROUP 6

Wikipedia Articles: Structure & Headings

Names: Harin Rajesh, Corbin Ward, Joshua Kakinuki, Julia Russell

Question 1

What are standard sections in each Wikipedia article regardless of whether or not an article is well-developed?

Some standard sections in each Wikipedia article include the titles, images, a context section, references, and external links.

Question 2

What are See Also sections designed for?

The see also section shows other relevant articles that are not directly referenced in the text.

Question 3

What are at least five headings that your group thinks should or could be included on a Merced Assembly Center Wikipedia article page?

1. Main Article Heading
2. References
3. See Also
4. History
5. External Links
6. Gallery

Question 4

Overall, what kinds of sources are being used in these Wikipedia articles? (e.g. Do you notice journal articles, books, websites, newspapers, archives being referenced the most?)

There is a wide variety of sources including books, news articles, and websites.