

So, You're interested in acting for One Dollar Genre

Welcome to One Dollar Genre, an independent filmmaking crew based in Ōtautahi Christchurch, Aotearoa New Zealand, where we make one short film per month, from script to screening.

If you are a performer and want to star in one of our many short films, here is how to submit an audition to be considered for a role.

Just copy this form and email a filled out version to auditionodg@gmail.com

MATERIAL

Please provide ONE headshot.

Please provide ONE current full body shot.

To see your full range, please submit TWO self-taped, contrasting monologues from any of your favourite films, TV series, or stage productions.

Have fun with it!

The tapes shall be maximum 2 MINUTES long and can be filmed on your phone or a camera. Please make sure you stand in front of a neutral background, that your face is well lit, and that you are audible on the video (loud/clear/no background noise).

Please upload your photos and audition tapes in separate files 1 file for each monologue and don't edit them together. You can send your material via Google Drive, WE Transfer or other medium of choice. Please do not send them via email attachment.

YOUR ACTING CHOICE

If you're responding to a casting call, please state here which character you want to audition for.

To find the best possible role for you we want to know more about your acting interests.

Please list any characters, Genre, time periods or other things you're excited to play:

Please list any acting restrictions you want to share with us, things that are off the table for you such as specific characters, intimacy, nudity, stunts/fighting, sensitive content such as war, violence, trauma etc. Feel free to be as specific as you feel comfortable with. Please note this is not mandatory and doesn't mean you will have less of a chance to be cast. At One Dollar Genre we aim to establish consent-forward practice and a human-first approach which means we want to make sure we value your boundaries and that everything is consensual.
