VERSE 1

[D] Freddie plays the bongos,
It was a 60's Fad
He likes to dress in drag, you see
Every[G]body thinks he's [A] Mad

But he's as [G] straight as can be,
Like you and me
If [D] only they could [A] see [D] Past their own per[G]ceptions
Of what a [A] guy ought to [D] be

CHORUS

[G] People come in different sizes
[D] Different flavours, different styles
[G] When we come together
[D] We share the craic and have a [A] laugh
[D] For miles.... and [G] smiles....
[D] For miles.... and [A] smiles

VERSE 2

[D] Bella is a lady
With a very weird vice,
She likes to eat blue cheese and [G] tomato sauce with [A] rice

[G] Other people might look,
[D] upon this with [A] disgust
But [D] I happen to [G] know,
She's a [A] person you can [D] trust

VERSE 3

[D] Josh spends every Friday night,
At the Cock and Bull
Whenever he's with Carly,
His [G] heart is pretty [A] full

They [G] play some games and drink good wine
~~and they~~ [D] dance a merry [A] jig
To [D] music played by [G] Freddie, in a [A] dress and purple [D] wig
