

ATLANTISKING

EVERYTHING IS SINKING, IT'S ALL FALLING AWAY

life can feel that way sometimes.
but there's always one thing left.
the thing you can never lose.

no matter what comes - things that would break any other man - it's the one thing you'll always have that makes you you...

It's the place you've been trying to reach,
can't be found on any map or sea chart.

you know what the place is called now,
don't you arthur?

yes... it's called
