

My Life & My Death (Eng):

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

بإذن الله تعالى

السلام عليكم ورحمة الله وبركاته

❖ Monday 6th February 2017

❖ My Life & My Death

❖ LESSON # 3

❖ Topic :Visiting the Sick

🕒 Time : 24:25

🕒 Visiting the sick purely to console and comfort , pleases Allah swt . It is one of the "Huqooq ul 'Ibaad".

🕒 Illness sheds sins. For speedy recovery, make dua for the patient.

🕒 Be kind and compassionate to the patient.

🕒 Reciting dua with the hand placed on area of pain is called "Ruqia". This is recommended.

🕒 Islam encourages to visit a non-Muslim, suffering from sickness but avoid those who are rebellious.

🕒 " Will" is a set of instructions regarding the distribution of 1/3 of the wealth. Writing a will is a duty incumbent on every Muslim.

🕒 A "Will" acts as a reminder of meeting with Allah.

🕒 A "Will" , violating Islamic rules is considered invalid. Similarly, a "Will" that causes harm and infringes on other's rights will lead to the hell fire.

🕒 A will may encompass commands regarding;

a) Wealth and Property e.g jewellery, currency, etc.

b) Rights and Obligations e.g debts, loans, etc.

c) Advice and Purification e.g instructions for any specific duty.

🕒 The testator can give instructions about his will and burial rites.

🕒 The best kind of will is that of advice and recommendations for the future.

