2. STOP MOTION/ VISUAL EFFECTS: Visual Effects
3. SYNOPSIS (ONE PARAGRAPH ONLY):

It was one night— the main character sat in her room, browsing through social media when someone texted her. She opened the message to see that she was one of the lucky winners to be invited to a game. She deleted the message and went through her social media again. The message comes back again— and this time the MC texted back, saying that they got the wrong number. The number insists that she is a participant. Angry, she blocked the number. The number texted again, making the MC switch off her phone. A hand reaches out from the back, about to touch her and disappears when the MC looks back. Despite being switched off, a message pops up on her phone, saying she cannot back out from being a participant. The MC and the unknown texter argued until MC gets sucked into her phone.
