

Heyy (gym team),

I am a gymbro, your social media attracted me, and I must say that you provide really high quality, my respect!

I am also writing because I would like to present some ideas about your lovely website and this instagram page and how you can gain new members and become exclusively popular.

The tactic that I wanna present will help you tap into the hearts of anybody much more, and some of your competitors have already leveraged that successfully,

So how about me making it work for you for FREE?

You are the ones who have all the ingredients for thriving, like an existing audience and superior gym equipment, so my marketing suggestions will work perfectly for you.

Send me a message if you're interested in hearing it.
