

14.1 Numbers 22-36

Use in conjunction with the Student Manual

Student Name:

What do the three scenarios (written in the manual) have in common?

If you were in these situations, how would you respond to the instructions and warnings? What consequences might you experience based on how you choose to respond?

Read Numbers 22:12–13, looking for what God told Balaam not to do.

How did Balaam respond to God's instructions?

Read Numbers 22:18–21, looking for how Balaam responded to King Balak's second offer.

1. Read the designated verses in each column and write a short description or draw a picture of what happened to Balaam because he ignored God's instructions and warnings and went with King Balak's men

Numbers 22:22–23	Numbers 22:24–26	Numbers 22:27–30	Numbers 22:31–35

How do you think Balaam put himself in danger by ignoring the Lord's warning?

2. Write about a situation when the Lord gave a warning to you or someone you know. Describe what happened when you or the other person either ignored the warning or obeyed it.

Read Numbers 24:12–13, and notice how Balaam responded to King Balak's anger.

Have you ever read a story that had a surprise ending? The account of Balaam and King Balak has an unanticipated ending. How do you think the account might end?

Read Numbers 25:1–3, looking for what happened when the children of Israel arrived at Moab, Balak's kingdom.

Read Revelation 2:14, looking for an insight into what happened to bring about the ending of this account

What did Balaam teach King Balak to do?

What blessings have you received that are so great you feel you could never repay Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ?

Read Numbers 31:1–4, looking for what the Lord directed the Israelites to do to the Midianites.

Read Numbers 31:48–49, looking for how many Israelite soldiers died in this war with the Midianites.

Read Numbers 31:50, looking for what the officers of the army of Israel brought to Moses to show their gratitude.

3. a. What are some offerings or gifts we can give to the Lord to show our gratitude for His blessings in our lives?

b. How have you been blessed by showing gratitude to the Lord through your actions?

c. What offering will you give the Lord to show your gratitude for blessings He has given you?

4. Additional questions, thoughts, and insights I would like to share with my teacher:
