📖 UNSW Bible Talk – FAQ

👋 What is this?

We're a group of students at UNSW who meet weekly to have real conversations about life, purpose, and God using the Bible.

It's not a lecture.
It's not a debate club.
It's a discussion.

🤔 Do I need to believe in God to come?

No.

Most people who come are still figuring things out.
You can believe, not believe, or just be curious.

You're welcome either way.

😅 Is this going to be awkward?

Honestly? It's pretty chill.

We hang out, read a short passage, and talk about it.
No one's putting you on the spot.

You can share as much or as little as you want.

🧠 What do you actually talk about?

Real topics like:

- Anxiety
- Purpose

- Relationships
- Identity
- Truth

We use the Bible as the foundation, but we connect it to real life.

⏱️ How long is it?

Around 30–45 minutes.

We respect your time—especially during uni.

🗣️ Will I be pressured or forced to do anything?

No.

You can come, listen, ask questions, and leave.
No pressure. No expectations.

📖 Why the Bible?

Because whether people realize it or not, it has shaped a lot of the world we live in.

We believe it has real answers, but we want you to explore and decide for yourself.

🧍 Can I come alone?

Yes—and a lot of people do.

You won’t be the only one.

👥 What kind of people go?

UNSW students from all kinds of backgrounds:

- different cultures
- different beliefs
- different stages of life

No “type” required.

📍 Where and when is it?
