

CHOOSE THREE ORAL SCENARIOS

It's Teacher Appreciation Day. Which item best represents your teacher, why?

You are on a mountain and there was an avalanche. What item would you use to protect yourself? Why?

You are trapped in a box. Which one of your items would help you get out? Why?

You're canoeing in the middle of a lake and lose your oars. Which item would you use to replace your oar? Why?

You need something off the top shelf and you can't reach it. Which item could help you reach it? How?

You've been selected to be part of a band. Which item would you use as an instrument? Why?

A store is requiring the use of a mask, but you forgot yours at home. Which item could you use for a mask? Why?

© HEAD OVER HEELS FOR TEACHING

While walking through the woods, you encounter a bear. Which item do you use to defend yourself. Why?

You have to cook dinner. Which item would most help you in the kitchen? Why?

You lost your pillow and must use one of your items to sleep on. Which one do you choose and why?

While riding your bike you get a flat tire. Which item will help you fix your flat? Explain.

A tsunami is coming! Which item will help you survive? Explain.

Your air conditioning broke and it's sweltering outside. Which item can you use as a fan? Explain.

One of your items gets selected to be represented for a national holiday. Which one would you choose? Why?

While camping, your campfire is burning out of control. Which item will help you put out the fire? How?

You just got a new puppy, but don't have any dog toys. Which one of your items would you use? Why?

© HEAD OVER HEELS FOR TEACHING

You are walking your dog and he runs off. You are unable to find him. Which item could help you locate your dog? How?

You are dropped off at a deserted island all alone. Which item do you bring with you? Explain.

You and your friends are playing in the woods and walk right into an ant pile. Which item will help you get the ants off of you? Explain.

Your ship is sinking and water is coming in fast. What item will help save you? Explain.

The temperature is dropping outside and you can't get indoors for several hours. Which one of your items will keep you warm? Explain.

While stranded on a deserted island you hear a rescue plane flying nearby. You need to use one of your items to wave down the pilot. Which one do you choose? Why?

Your plane has run out of fuel and is slowly descending. Which item could you use to save yourself? Explain.

© HEAD OVER HEELS FOR TEACHING

You are camping and need food. Which item would help you hunt for food? Explain.

You're on a water ride and want to stay dry. Which one of your items will help you keep dry? Explain.

You've just been invited to a birthday party and need to be there in 5 minutes. What item do you choose to give as a present? Why?

You are in the middle of a zombie apocalypse. What item can you use to escape from the zombies? Why?

You're at the end of summer vacation and you're bored. What item can you turn into a game?/ How is it played?

While camping you want to make smores, but realize you need to make a fire. Which one of your items could help you make a fire? Explain.

You wake up in the morning and your floor has turned to lava. Which item do you use to get out of your bedroom?

Your parents asked you to mow the lawn and they will be home in 1 hour. Explain which item you will use to get the job done.

© HEAD OVER HEELS FOR TEACHING

You've been outside playing all day and before you know it the sun has gone down and it's starting to get windy and cold. Which item will you use to help keep you warm? Explain.

The dog jumped on the dinner table and broke it. Which item do you use as a table to eat your dinner?

Your friends invited you to go ice skating, but you don't have ice skates. What item will you use to participate?

You are babysitting and have run out of diapers. Which one of your items can you use as a diaper? Explain.

A snowstorm hits while you are in school, but everyone needs to get home. Which item do you use to clear the sidewalk for everyone to walk safely? Why?

You need a last minute costume for the Halloween parade. Explain what item you will use as part of your costume and why.

You forgot your utensils to eat lunch at home and the school cafeteria has run out. What item will help you eat lunch? Explain.

On the first day of school you have a show and tell session, which one of your items best describes you? Why?

You're in a rush to get ready for school and can't find your brush. What item could you use to brush your hair? Explain.

Natural disasters occur all over the world. Which one of your items would you find in a disaster kit and how could it help you?

You and your friends are at an amusement park. While riding a roller coaster, the seatbelt breaks. Which one of your items could secure you in your seat until the ride is over? Explain.

The playground equipment was destroyed during a hurricane. What item do you use to play at recess? Why?

The pet hamster gets loose in the classroom. Which item do you use to get the hamster back in the cage? Explain.

You are up in a treehouse in your backyard, but the ladder broke. What item do you use to get down? Explain.

© HEAD OVER HEELS FOR TEACHING

You need to design a science experiment for class. What item can you use for the experiment? Explain.

You are in the middle of a flood due to a torrential downpour. What item can you use to keep afloat? Explain.

Kindness matters. You need to create something out of one item that will be helpful to someone else. Which item will you use and what will it be used for?

Dessert should always be eaten first in any meal. What items could be used to help make a dessert? Bonus: What is the dessert?

You've been asked to direct a movie. Which item will be the star and what's the name of your movie?

You and your classmates are creating a time capsule for future students. Which item would you use to include in the capsule? Why?