

Hey Susie, I bet you want your investment into Facebook Ads to pay off.

I'd bet that because I see you're a business-savvy woman, that's why you decided to focus on this growing need.

To help you do that better, I've prepared a few ideas for your FB Ad. You'd actually be surprised how making just a few little tweaks on your Facebook Ad would nearly double your Click-Through Rate.

My guarantee is, you don't pay me until I make you 5x the cost of my services, let me know if that sounds fair, and I'll send you the Ad.

I'm also attaching a portfolio of my previous work

Until later,

Maks Ponikvar
