

Compose your Definition

- Compose a sentence that includes your top three criteria for a courageous act.

For an act to be courageous, it must _____, _____,
and _____.

Define Criterion #1

- Begin with a transition and restatement of your first criterion.

_____, for an act to be courageous, it must _____.

- Provide an example to illustrate the first criterion.

For example, _____

_____.

This act is courageous because _____.

- Follow with a transition and a counter-example for your first criterion.

_____, if _____ that is not courageous because _____.

Define Criterion #2

- Start with a different transition and a restatement of your second criterion.

_____ for an act to be courageous it must _____.

- This time, use a compound sentence with a semicolon to lead with your counter-example.

It is not courageous if _____;

_____.

- Follow with a supporting example that uses a compound sentence with a semicolon.

_____;

_____.

Define Criterion #3

- Start with a transition that indicates a conclusion and your third criterion.

_____ for an act to be courageous it must _____.

- Provide your final example using a compound sentence and a coordinating conjunction (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so).

_____, _____ that is a courageous act. This act is courageous because _____.

- Supply your counter-example using a compound sentence and a coordinating conjunction (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so).

_____, _____ that is not a courageous act. This act is not courageous because _____.