

My Digital Citizenship Week

Digital citizenship is how you engage with media and technology responsibly to learn, create, and participate in the world. This week, you'll reflect upon this question:

How am I, _____, being a digital citizen today?

(insert your name)

Each day, complete the sentences below. Track your progress all week.

I create media balance in my life by ...	I keep my private information safe by ...
I build a positive digital footprint by ...	I communicate kindly, build relationships, and stand up to hate by ...
I think critically about the things I see, create, and share by ...	I am a digital citizen because ...
