

Module 4 Guided Notes

Lesson 4.03- Show Some Support

Transition Words and Phrases

- What is the purpose of transitional words and phrases?
- Give examples of transition words and phrases (hint use the "list of simple transitions" on page 3 of lesson 4.05):

Signal Words and Phrases

- What is the purpose of signal words and phrases?
- Give examples of signal words and phrases (hint use the "list of signal phrase verbs" on page 4 of lesson 4.05):

Elaboration

- Some ways to elaborate include (Hint: see page 5 of lesson 4.05):
  - o Example, _____, statistics or data, _____ or citation, paraphrase, _____, description, and _____.

Elements of a body paragraph

The main elements of a body paragraph (Hint: see page 6 of lesson 4.05):

1. One _____ people should agree with your claim.
2. One sentence giving a _____ from a credible source that supports your reason.
3. A signal phrase and the source of the fact that you add to the sentence in step 2.
4. Another sentence giving a fact from a _____ source that supports your reason.
5. A signal phrase and the source of the fact that you add to the sentence in step 4.
6. Add _____ details you may need from the reason and facts to make sense.
Explain terms specific to your topic and use _____ style.
7. Add _____ words and phrases to help your writing flow more smoothly.