

CNN 10 NOTES WITH KEY QUESTIONS

Directions: Format your paper in Cornell Notes style (draw a line down the page about a third of the way to the right.) See below for an example of how to set up your paper.

TITLE Ex: CNN 10- September 11, 2017

Key Questions:

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)

On the LEFT

- Write Who?, What?, When?, Where?, Why/How? down the side of the page. Leave space in between each (3-4 lines)

Ex:

Who?

What?

When?

Where?

Why/How?

On the RIGHT

- Copy notes about the article that answer the questions above

Ex:

- Florida residents, people in Cuba and the Caribbean
- Hurricane Irma hits land
- Category 5 in Cuba, Category 4 in Florida
- 24 people died
- Cuba- Friday
- Florida- Sunday
- Florida (Naples, Tampa, Miami)
- Cuba/Caribbean
- Hurricane season/ natural disaster

Answer the Key Question for each article:

At the end of each article:

- Draw a line across the bottom of your page, like above.
- Answer the Key Question for that article across the entire page. You do not need to rewrite the question, just put the question number at the beginning of your response.
- Answer the question using AB format. Label your A and B.
 - A= Answer the key question using wording from the question and making a claim. A claim is statement that can be argued and proven with evidence. (For more info on making a claim, click this video.)
 - B= Back up your A statement with evidence from the article. The evidence should be specific, meaning it should include proper nouns like names of people, places, and important things. These names should be the kind that are capitalized. For instance, don't just say "the mayor of the city," say "Mayor Faulkner from San Diego."

Then, do it again for the next article in the video!
