Attention All Students:

If you are interested in learning more info about the WMS musical, Matilda Jr. and getting some practice with the audition materials before next week's auditions, come to audition workshops this week after school. Workshops will be in the Little Theater from 3-4:45pm on Wednesday (September 7) and Thursday (September 8), but the info is the same on both days, so attending one of the workshop days is all you might need. Please note that you can still audition without attending the workshops--workshops are just to give you practice and a chance to get your musical-related questions answered. If you cannot make the workshop days and have any questions about the musical, please email the director, Mr. Baas-Peterson (tbaas@portageps.org).
