Battle 010 | Backstabbing Father

You bastard...!

Since my vision is gone,
I'm trusting you to identify them.

She was with Koharu...
No way.
Did that girl also become a bomb...!?

Pg 092

How sad...

To think a corrupted lamb would betray god.

Battle 010 | Backstabbing Father

The number on his arm...
Is this fucker a "holder"?
I thought all of them were in hiding,
Just great, to think one of them was still in a place like this.

Pg 093

I'm a shepherd.
As such, I can't do my job if I'm somewhere without any sheep.

This ends now, you fuck.
If you don't want me to spread your brain tissue all over this floor, let those children go.

I am not restraining these children.
They are here of their own free will.

Using the brats as shields!? You make me fucking sick!!

You appear to be trying your hardest to take my lambs from me, but it's all in vain.
They have already given in to the harvest.
Because all of them seek God's salvation.

Pg 094

Salvation?

You crazy fuck, just think about how many people fell victim due to your actions!
Before you can remove evil, a healthy amount of blood must flow, it is unavoidable.

Let us consider one soldier.

Hah?

There was once a solitary man who volunteered to become a soldier, to protect the country.

His belief was that in order to protect this country of his, he would murder people, and even if he hurt himself, he would fight on...

Before long, he did get injured, and much to his despair, he was sent home.

However, his true despair...

Would begin here.

Pg 095

Due to the Olympic plan, the rich became richer and richer, and the poor became poorer and poorer, reducing our society into poverty...

On top of that, he began to realize that war was only being waged in order to protect corporate interests.

He had done nothing more than slaughter!

He'd lost his way, and spent days wallowing in anger and grief.

But God granted him power.

All of those days of anguish were trials given to him by God.

It was then he realized...

It's his duty to take the place of God and use that divine power to bring peace and understanding to the world!!

Pg 096

Not an uncommon tale...

I'm guessing the "man" in the story is you?

...My former self is now dead.

Get out of here!

Don't bully father!

We'll protect him!

What the hell...

How is he making the children do...
You've brainwashed them!?

Words that tell the truth will reach people's hearts.
This is proof that I was chosen by God!

Pg 097

Tch.

You're just a god damn serial killer.

Father!

Some people are here to-

Don't move!

Father...!?

They will cause you no harm.

Well then, I suppose I'm defeated, huh?

We're not playing around! You're coming with us!

Pg 098

"Noli Me Tángere!" (Touch me not!)

Do not be mistaken.

I am not the one you're arresting.

What'd you say, you bastard!?

Quickly!

The one you're after is behind you!

Pg 099

Fucker...

Hey now...

Don't move!

What are you doing, Kimura!?

Ugh...

Father, quick!

Pg 100

So your real intention is to cause terror, isn't it, you bastard!?

If that is God's will.

What happened? What's going on!?

The priest is getting away!

That's what I'd like to know!

Quit struggling!

Father, who were those people...?

You needn't be concerned, Sister.

Righteousness shall always be on our side.

Pg 101

Thank you, sensei!

Without a doubt, the veil shall be lifted upon a new world!

Yes.

Father.

Geez, what're you doing...

Sorry, but I can't go easy on you!!

Oi, hey, you guys...

Where are you going!?

Tch.

I lost 'em...

...Shit, are they part of the Ryujin-kai Group?

Did the Yakuza bring them into their fold?

Pg 103

What now...

If they bring more bombs into the city...

Then the amount we've collected thus far has been for nothing...!

This shouldn't come as a shock to you!

In any case, just catch the priest!

Kondo-kun had gotten a visual on the car that the priest was riding in...

Akira, use any accessible cameras to identify that car!

I'll try!

Minami and Alma, go after the priest's car as soon as we find it!

The S.S.A.T. will provide any needed backup.

Roger!

Pg 104

Let's go, Alma!!

[Dwssh]

[tkka tkka tkka]

I found it!

They're on the Shutoko Wangan line, headed for Ginza!

Roger!

[screeech]

Pg 105

Alma, I'll go around back! We'll hit him from both sides!

Oi, Minami, where are you going!?

Just taking a shortcut!

[VvVroom]

...Whoa, she's going so fast...

Pg 106
[swirrrve]

Hey.

[squeel]
Now I've gotchaaaaa!!!

No way...

Ha Ha Ha those are some inhuman driving skills right there!

That's one of the reasons she was promoted to the countermeasure division.
From tricycles to airplanes, there's basically no vehicle that that kid can't handle...

Pg 107
[rattataatat]

[skiddd]

[ymmmm]

The time for a test has come.
Only brave warriors are allowed through heaven's gates.
You have been chosen as a warrior of god!

Yes Father...!

Pg 108
Urraah!
[gwsssh]
I've been chosen as a warrior of god!

[bwsh]
I'll dive headlong into heaven!!!

Pg 109
[boom]

Waah!

You bastard...

[skiddd]

Pg 110

[bwoom]

[swirrrve]

Sh-!!

[kh-shaaaa]

Pg 111

Minami!!

Uugh...

Kh...

[sswp...]

I'm okay...

Don't move from your position, we'll call for an ambulance!

...roger.

Agh,

He escaped, didn't he...?

Just a little more and we...

[p'shoop]

Eh...!?

Pg 112

Shit.

I have to find him again!

No matter how hard it may be.

You said the bombs are remote detonated, right? If so, he won't show himself so casually.

If it was me, I'd escape somewhere overseas.

Is it possible to detonate them from that far away?

Why? What are you getting at?

At first I was really worried...

But why would he make one person explode every 5 minutes?

Looking at those reconstructed images of the “olympic terrorism” attack...

Wouldn't he rather go with a simultaneous explosion...?

That certainly is a more conventional method of terrorism with many hostages...

A “Shepherd” he says...

If you took the composition of human somatic cells “C³H⁶N⁶O⁶” and replaced them all...

[tkka tkka tkka]

To control the chemical reaction, a massive amount of processing power would be required.

I was wondering if that “engraving” alone would be enough to do that.

Of course, if that was just an “assembler” that passed the process onto the EX-ARM itself...

Pg 114

Then his “remote range” may not be very wide.

...Let's scrub through footage from the explosion sites that have happened so far!

If his remote range really is limited, the priest should've been nearby!

Pg 115

Akira-kun, look for any video archives you can find!

I'll check up on anything you can't access.

Understood!

Doctor...

Call me “Alissa”

Gateway is sure to release that information soon enough anyway.

Y-Yes!

The Priest,

The Priest...

...Th-There he is!

I see him in this one, too!

Ohh?

So that's what it is.

Pg 116

[screech]

Minami-san!!

Minami-san! Are you alright!?

Hnn...

Well...

I felt a little strange just now...

Almost like I fainted...

Alma, do you read me!?

We have some new intel!

At all of the previous explosion sites there was always a person who looked like the priest!

Pg 117

The range he was seen from the center of the explosion is about a "300m radius"!!

It's likely that this is his "remote detonation" range!

In other words, in order to cause these terror attacks, the priest must appear on site...

The moment he shows his face, we'll pin him down!!

Now that we've got a lead to catching the priest, we'll be sure to nab him!

Pg 118

Minami-san,

Your chest...

Eh?

[crackle crackle crackle]
