

University of Minnesota Medical School

Confirming or Withdrawing My Seat to the Entering Class of 2021

Accepting or Withdrawing My Seat in the Class

1. Beginning February 19th, I understand that I can communicate my "Plan to Enroll" decision through the AMCAS Choose Your Medical School Tool. I understand this is not my final decision, and do not need to confirm my intent to matriculate until 21 days prior to the start of orientation.
2. On April 30th, I understand that I am required to narrow my acceptance offers to one medical school. I understand that It is recommended that I select "Plan to Enroll" to communicate that I am only holding one acceptance offer at this time. If I will be matriculating at the University of Minnesota Medical School, I can select my decision as "Commit to Enroll".
3. On July 1st, I am required to select "Commit to Enroll" to confirm my matriculation to the University of Minnesota Medical School. Failure to do so will result in a rescinding of my acceptance offer.
4. I am aware that if I withdraw my acceptance, I will not be able to request that my spot be reinstated.
5. If I have declared my "Commit to Enroll" at the University of Minnesota Medical School and receive a new medical school acceptance after April 30th, I will notify the medical school if I intend to withdraw within one week of the new acceptance offer. In the event that the acceptance occurs within one month of orientation to the University of Minnesota Medical School, I will contact the Office of Admissions within 48 hours of the new acceptance.
6. If I begin the orientation program at the University of Minnesota Medical School, but receive a new offer of acceptance, I must disclose this information to both the Office of Admissions and the Office of Student Affairs. I must also disclose that I have started the orientation program at the University of Minnesota Medical School to the school that has newly accepted me.
7. I agree to send my withdrawal notification in writing to Crystal Esparza, Director of Admissions, at crystale@umn.edu.