

Thomas Hübl - The Mystical Principles of Healing - Part 2: Practices and Principles at the Evolutionary Edge

A Six-Month Online Course with Thomas Hübl

Healing means that we dedicate our life to where the light meets the shadow. Where aliveness meets the contraction. Where the potential meets the past. Working on that edge is a constant revelation and expansion. ~ Thomas Hübl

Discover a New Paradigm of Healing

Over the past 15 years, Thomas Hübl has developed a radical approach to healing that integrates scientific knowledge with timeless wisdom from the mystical traditions. By combining these methods, Thomas is able to teach others how to push beyond their current capabilities and take control of their personal evolution as a healer.

Thomas leads others to find their evolutionary edge – where true innovation, creativity, and inspiration take place. When you rest at the evolutionary edge you're capable of genuine service to others. That edge is where the future can heal the past.

This is your opportunity to join an incredible community of healing professionals for an intensive, six-month course that will catalyze transformation and accelerate your development as a practitioner.

“I believe what we know through psychology and medicine, combined with transpersonal or contemplative knowledge, is a very powerful mixture.”

– Thomas Hübl

How do we go beyond symptoms to essential understanding?

As healing professionals, we strive to strengthen and expand our ability to see below surface symptoms to perceive the root of a client's difficulties. We must develop new, subtle capacities that lead to the deeper level of understanding and insight necessary for transformation. This is how we guide others, and ourselves, down the path to a healthy future.

What you can't see, you can't address. This course will open up your seeing and allow you to perceive possibilities for healing where there were none before.

Thomas will delve deeply into a variety of topics, including:

Refinement of subtle capacities and inner landscape mapping to increase your perception, attunement, and precision as a healing practitioner

Discovering, attuning to and resonating with your authentic energy and calling as a healing practitioner

Cutting-edge methods for facilitating healing through group coherence or “we-space” consciousness

Advanced principles and practices of healing personal, collective and intergenerational trauma, and understanding trauma within the developmental process.

Practices for establishing inner coherence and “super coherence” to facilitate the transmission of healing energy

The evolutionary function of transference, symptoms, and “blocks”

Emotions and their role in healing

Healing at a distance

The application of advanced contemplation, meditation and prayer to keep one’s healing practice sustainable, refreshed, and “updated”

In this video, Mairead, a participant in the first Mystical Principles of Healing course, speaks about how the course affected her work as a craniosacral therapist:

“As soon as the client enters the room, my energetic impression of this client is much more refined. And I also trust my inner guidance more.”

– MAIREAD P. Craniosacral Therapist

Join our community to catalyze powerful change

The people who are drawn to Thomas’s programs feel a deep calling to align their work as a healing professional with both their personal life and with the well-being of the collective. These people include medical professionals, therapists, coaches, consultants, leaders, alternative healing practitioners, and bodyworkers.

They seek genuine transformation so that their work in the world can be powerful, grounded, and genuinely integrated with their own life-balance, relationships, and values.

Along with the course sessions and Q&A with Thomas, you’ll meet regularly with a smaller group of participants practicing in a similar field. These mentoring groups are guided by senior students of Thomas who are professional healing practitioners.

You will also have the opportunity to join a triad where you can discuss the course material and support each other through sharing and reflection.

Live Course Sessions

The Mystical Principles of Healing, Part 2 course will take place from November 19, 2016 to May 21, 2017, and includes twelve, two-hour live video conference sessions with Thomas. These sessions include teaching, guided meditation, and live Q&A.

Thomas will be teaching in English, with translations made available in German after each session.
