Managing Your Own Business

Golden Standard	Maroon Standards	What does it look like	How it is assessed
Students will be able to discover how their interest, aptitudes, skills and trends can affect their career choice or type of business they want to be involved in.
Students will be able to identify different ethical dilemmas and analyze their reactions.
Students will be able to learn about economic indicators and how those indicators affect our economy.
Students will be able to understand how businesses are organized.
Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge in the different types of business operations.			