

Name _____

Date _____

Worksheet: Cornell Notes

Instructions: As you read, use this template to help you analyze the text and organize your thinking.

|                                                                                        |                                                                 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| Before Reading: Record the source (i.e, title, author, date, etc.).             |                                                                 |
| After Reading: Record main ideas and questions using notes in the right column. | During Reading: Take notes as you read and record below: |
|                                                                                        |                                                                 |
| After Reading: Summarize what you just read:                                    |                                                                 |
|                                                                                        |                                                                 |

Name _____

Date _____