Rhyming Poem:

There's a sneaky snowman, tall and bright,

With a carrot nose and eyes so tight.

He's got a secret, hidden deep,

But he's not the only one who'll keep.

With books and pencils, he loves to learn,

His focus sharp at every turn.

He's quick to read and faster still,

He'll finish tests with skill and will.

He hides in the hallways, quick as a breeze,

And often chats with friends with ease.

But don't be fooled by his frosty charm,

He's always up to a little alarm!

Can you guess the student with a mind so keen,

Who loves a good challenge and keeps things clean?
