1. ARTICLE IDENTITY

Judul Artikel : [Judul lugas dan memuat temuan penting] terdiri dari maksimal 20 kata

Authors: [Author 1 Name], [Author 2 Name], [etc.]

Affiliation: [Study Program/Department, Institution, City, Country]

Corresponding Email (one email only)

2. ABSTRACT

[150–250 words. Concise and clear: background/problem, objective, method, main results with key data, and conclusion/implications. Provide Indonesian and English versions if required by the journal policy.]

Keywords: [3–5 words/phrases reflecting the main concepts of the article]

3. ABSTRACT

[English abstract with the same structure and information as the Indonesian abstract.]

Keywords: [3–5 keywords]

4. INTRODUCTION

4.1 Background and Problem

[Write the content of this section. Ensure that the problem, previous research, research gap, novelty, contribution, and objective are logically connected.]

4.2 State of the Art / Recent Research Review

[Write the content of this section. Ensure that the problem, previous research, research gap, novelty, contribution, and objective are logically connected.]

4.3 Research Gap Analysis

[Write the content of this section. Ensure that the problem, previous research, research gap, novelty, contribution, and objective are logically connected.]

4.4 Research Novelty and Contribution

[Write the content of this section. Ensure that the problem, previous research, research gap, novelty, contribution, and objective are logically connected.]

4.5 Research Objective

[Write the content of this section. Ensure that the problem, previous research, research gap, novelty, contribution, and objective are logically connected.]

5. RESEARCH METHOD

5.1 Research Design/Type

[Describe the research in sufficient detail so that it can be understood and/or replicated.]

5.2 Research Location and Time

[Describe the research in sufficient detail so that it can be understood and/or replicated.]

5.3 Population/Sample/Participants or Data Sources

[Describe the research in sufficient detail so that it can be understood and/or replicated.]

5.4 Data Collection Techniques and Instruments

[Describe the research in sufficient detail so that it can be understood and/or replicated.]

5.5 Research Procedure

[Describe the research in sufficient detail so that it can be understood and/or replicated.]

5.6 Data Analysis Techniques

[Describe the research in sufficient detail so that it can be understood and/or replicated.]

5.7 Data Validity/Trustworthiness

[Describe the research in sufficient detail so that it can be understood and/or replicated.]

5.8 Ethical Clearance / Ethical Approval

[Describe the research in sufficient detail so that it can be understood and/or replicated.]

6. RESEARCH RESULTS

[Present the main findings systematically. Use tables/figures when helpful and ensure that all are referred to in the text.]

Table 1. [Table Title]

Variabel/Indikator	Kelompok A	Kelompok B	Keterangan
[isi]	[isi]	[isi]	[isi]
[isi]	[isi]	[isi]	[isi]
[isi]	[isi]	[isi]	[isi]

[Place the figure here. Ensure adequate resolution and that the figure clearly supports the explanation.]

7. DISCUSSION

7.1 Interpretation of Main Findings

[Interpret the results in depth. Compare them with other studies and explain the reasons for similarities/differences in findings.]

7.2 Comparison with Previous Research

[Interpret the results in depth. Compare them with other studies and explain the reasons for similarities/differences in findings.]

7.3 Theoretical/Practical Implications

[Interpret the results in depth. Compare them with other studies and explain the reasons for similarities/differences in findings.]

7.4 Research Limitations

[Interpret the results in depth. Compare them with other studies and explain the reasons for similarities/differences in findings.]

8. CONCLUSION

[Answer the research objective directly. Avoid merely repeating the results. Add relevant implications or recommendations where appropriate.]

9. AUTHOR CONTRIBUTIONS

[Example: Conceptualization: A.A.; Methodology: A.A. and B.B.; Data collection: B.B.; Analysis: A.A.; Draft writing: A.A.; Review and editing: A.A. and B.B.]

10. FUNDING

[Research funding source. If none, write: 'This research received no specific funding from public, commercial, or nonprofit funding agencies.']

11. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

[State any conflict of interest or write: 'The authors declare that there is no conflict of interest in this research and publication.']

12. AI USE STATEMENT

[Disclose AI use specifically in accordance with the journal policy. Example: AI was used only for grammar checking; all content, analysis, interpretation, and scientific decisions were conducted and verified by the authors.]

13. ETHICAL APPROVAL

[If the research involves humans/animals: provide the name of the ethics committee and the Ethical Clearance number and year. If not applicable, explain why.]

14. DATA AVAILABILITY

[Explain whether the data are available, restricted for ethical reasons, or available in a specific repository.]

15. REFERENCES

[Use the citation style specified by the journal. Prioritize primary and recent sources. Ensure that all in-text citations appear in the reference list and vice versa.]
