

True Crimes / Mysteries - KS3

Title: Daring Escapes
Author: Anne Rooney
BL: 2.8

Kidnapped by robbers. Trapped under a rock. Hear how real-life people have made daring escapes!

Title: The Biggest Lies Ever
Author: Alison Hawes
BL: 3.1

Cons artists, tricksters and hoaxes - read about some of history's biggest lies, and who told them.

Title: Blood Evidence
Authors: Amy Kortuem
BL: 3.8

Dive into forensics with this fact-filled book. Learn how bloodstain analysts use crime scene clues to track killers!

Title: Robberies
Author: Ann Weil
BL: 4.1

This book looks at some of history's most notorious robberies. Hear about stolen diamonds, trains - and even the Mona Lisa.

Title: World Cup Heist
Author: Roy Apps
BL: 4.5

Did you know that in 1966, a group of robbers planned to steal the Football World Cup? Read to learn their plan and whether they got away with it...

Title: Banished, Beheaded or Boiled in Oil
Author: Neil Tonge
BL: 6.5

How did they punish criminals in Ancient Rome? What about in Medieval Europe? The answers might be too gruesome for some people, but they're all in this book.

Title: Don't Read This Book Before Bed
Author: Anna Claybourne
BL: 7.7*

Thrills, chills, and hauntingly true stories: read about everything from zombies to haunted houses - that is, if you dare...

Title: History's Mysteries
Author: Kitson Jazynka
BL: 8.1*

Whatever happened to the Maya Civilisation? Who stole the Crown Jewels of Ireland? Read this book to hear about some of the biggest mysteries that are still unsolved.

Title: The Borden Murders
Author: Sarah Miller
BL: 8.9*

In 1892, Lizzie Borden was accused of killing her own parents with an axe. But did that really happen? Read about the 'trial of the century' and decide for yourself.

Title: Forensic Science
Author: Chris Cooper
BL: 10.0*

Fingerprinting, DNA profiling, microscopic analysis: scientists use all kinds of tools to solve crimes. Read about their history and the cutting-edge of forensic science in the bumper book.

* Estimated. Actual Book Level might be slightly lower.