

1. Make conditional sentences with one part from each side of the table:

If you are hungry tonight,	you can borrow my umbrella.
If you're cold,	I'll lend you some.
If your computer isn't working,	ask the teacher.
If it's raining,	you should see The Ring.
If you don't have plans for tomorrow,	we'll go somewhere on vacation.
If we don't have to work,	put on a sweater.
If I'm not here at 8 o'clock,	there's some juice in the fridge.
If you need money,	do you want to get together?
If you're thirsty,	share one with someone else.
If you don't understand this grammar,	you should read some review online.
If you like scary movies,	I'll make you a sandwich.
If you need a new phone,	you can go without me.

- a. ~~If you are hungry tonight, I'll make you a sandwich.~~
- b.
- c.
- d.

e.

f.

g.

h.

i.

j.

k.

l.

2. The following sentences are missing if. Should if go at the beginning or in the middle of the sentences? Don't forget to add a comma if it's needed and to capitalize the first letter of the sentences:

- a. If it's raining, I don't walk to school.
- b. my friends will help me I ask them.
- c. I don't have any money next week I will borrow some from someone.
- d. I'll cook some food my friends come to my house.
- e. you feel sick you should go home.
- f. I don't study English every day I won't improve.
- g. you'll get fat you eat too much unhealthy food.
- h. I'll get you a coffee you want one.
- i. we'll be happy you're at the party too.
- j. there's a fire call 9-1-1.
- k. the wifi isn't working just use your phone.
- l. my dog isn't very friendly he's tired.

3. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verbs in parentheses:

- a. If you go (go) to the grocery store tomorrow, please buy some bread.
- b. What will you do if there (be) a fire?
- c. I (call) you tomorrow night if I find out more information.
- d. If I (be) late for class on Tuesday, the teacher (be) angry.
- e. What should I do if I (not / understand)?
- f. May I check Facebook if I (finish) the quiz early?
- g. Could you please give me a hand if you (have) time?
- h. Don't worry if you (think) this is difficult grammar.
- i. Sarah (make) dinner for us tonight if we (ask) her.
- j. If he (not / have) to work tomorrow, he will want to stay home.
- k. If I (not fail) the test, I'll be surprised.
- l. We should hurry if there (not / be) much time.

4. Complete the sentences with your own ideas. When you are finished, discuss your answers with a partner:

Answers will vary

a.		If I go to bed early tonight, I'll feel good tomorrow.
b.		Could you call me if
c.		If there's time tomorrow,
d.		I'll go to Brazil for vacation if

e.		Don't cross the street if
f.		We shouldn't spend money if
g.		If the weather is nice this weekend,
h.		Could you please turn off the lights in this room if

i.		Wash your car if
j.		Don't feel bad if
k.		May I sit beside you if
l.		If you don't like studying,

5. Complete the following sentences with if or when.

- a. I don't know if he's coming to work today. I will call you if he does.
- b. She is driving home. The party will start she arrives.
- c. Is it OK I turn on the lights?
- d. The students will begin the test the teacher says "start".
- e. he's bored, he checks Instagram.
- f. I'll call you I arrive at the airport.
- g. it's sunny on Saturday, I'll walk along the beach.
- h. Steve is coming over. he arrives before I get home, could you call me?
- i. you can't use chopsticks, you should learn.
- j. I get home tonight, I'm going to take a bath.