The First thing to note in Donald Trumps' chart is the fact that he has Leo rising and is thus seen as a leader by many people. He was also in the entertainment business being the lead character in the mock reality TV Show, The Apprentice. The Apprentice was made on the mock premise that people were actually vying for real positions within a company. After the show was terminated the producers admitted that none of the 'apprentices' really got the jobs they were supposed to get on the show, although some were offered a lower position within the company and at a much reduced salary. Donald Trump is a con artist par excellent and he is the consummate actor. Everything is such an act for Donald that he probably no longer even knows what is real and what is not.

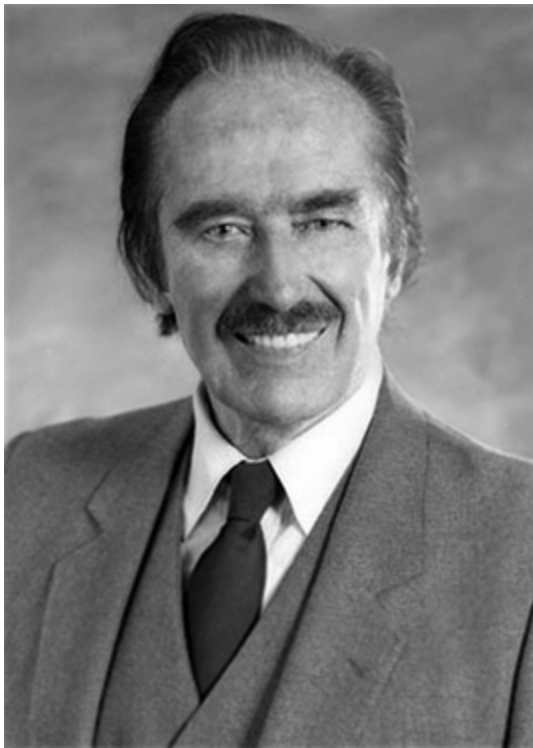

His character is most importantly revealed by his position on the Stairway of Brutality Index. His genome, or the characteristics of his primary and secondary aspects are Cancer Mercury Saturn Cancer Libra Jupiter Uranus Gemini then tertiary he has Sagittarius Moon Neptune Libra. He is a zero type. He is a sort of sub hero, he is not a charismatic, he is not a despot. He is just his view of the world with him as its hero. Neptune gives the aura of unreality to everything. However, his Mercury/Saturn gives him a cold, calculating side that thinks about his own needs before all others. The context of Cancer reveals his life in the Real Estate business, as Cancer is the sign of the home, or the place away from home as in Hotels. We find Mercury and Saturn in the 11th house of associates. That is Trump. The schmoozer. The man with the Trophy Wife hanging off his arm at the 'important' parties as Venus is there as well. He likes to 'entertain' at home- Mar a Lago. With the Mercury/Saturn aspect manifests a complex that says that the person is always right. Sometimes a know-it-all. He thinks he is very brilliant, but as Saturn falls in Cancer, then most do not agree, and neither did his teachers. Many others view him as a hero with his Make America Great Again campaign. However, if it were not for his family background he would be just another guy.

At age 13, he was enrolled in the New York Military Academy, a private boarding school. His parents basically just sent him away. Trump was born just before the full moon and it's later completion in his primary progressions symbolize his separation from his parents. The full moon aspect from the 10th to the 4th houses of his mother and father indicate that he was always in tension with his parents. When Donald started grade eight at the school on September 8th, 1959 Mars was in aspect with Trump's Jupiter/Uranus secondary aspect. It was a painful experience for him to have his father send him away. As then it was a private boys school Donald would have had very little contact with the opposite sex during his teenage years. When he was 13 his Moon had progressed to aspect Neptune. It was a time of loneliness for him, but he may have had great dreams.

Trump has Mars about three degrees into the 12th house conjunct to the ascendant in Leo. Mars here represents his 'internment' at the Military Boys School during his teenage years. He was to learn the martial arts and sciences to please his father. Donald John has the close aspect Leo Mars Pluto Leo in the 12th house. He must have despised his stay there, even if he denies it now. Trump spent five years at New York Military Academy after his father, having concluded that his son, then in seventh grade, needed a more discipline focused setting, removed him from his Queens private school and sent him upstate to NYMA. He seethes under his smiling exterior a great deal of the time and has inner rage that he has difficulty in controlling. People see this as his 'drive.' They see him as driven to succeed, which is what might have happened to him during his five year detention at the military academy. He was then driven to please his father who had sent him away. He would show him that he could be disciplined. He did very well at sports at school and won many awards. His first project for his dad's company was the Trump Tower in New York City. The project was constantly overseen by his father who seldom missed a day on the job site. Trump was then always under that same tension and his inner smouldering rage.

The pressure that Donald's German father put him under is perhaps best expressed by what happened to his brother. Fred Trump told his sons "win, be killers," according to Gwen Blair, who wrote the biography The Trumps. While Donald Trump was able to rise to prominence in the family business, his older brother, Fred Jr., had more difficulties following in his father's footsteps. Fred Trump wanted to become a pilot, but ended up suffering from alcoholism and died at the age of 43 as a result.

Donald Trump's father, Fred Trump Jr had his Sun, Mercury and Venus all in the 18th degree of their sign, and thus in aspect with Donald's primary aspect, Mercury/Uranus. Fred's genome is Libra Sun Venus Virgo Virgo Venus Mercury Libra. This indicates that Donald John's father was truly charismatic and could win people over very easily. This helped him to amass a grand fortune. Fred was investigated for profiteering on government contracts, which seemed obvious from the evidence, but managed to weasel out of the accusations by his 'winning ways.' The commission called Trump "a pretty shrewd character" with a "talent for getting every ounce of profit out of his housing project," Donald Trump joined Trump Management Company around 1968, and rose to become company president in 1971. In the mid-1970s, Donald received loans from his father exceeding $14 million (later claimed by Donald to have been only $1 million). This allowed Donald to enter the real-estate business in Manhattan, while his father stuck to Brooklyn and Queens. "It was good for me," Donald later commented. "You know, being the son of somebody, it could have been competition to me. This way, I got Manhattan all to myself." As we can see most of the way that Donald views himself is a fantasy that he gets others to believe. He has learned his father's charismatic shrewdness very well and imitates it to a 'T'. As his father was a self-made man, who also inherited his fortune from his father, so Donald John became 'the self made man.' It was all part of the schtick.

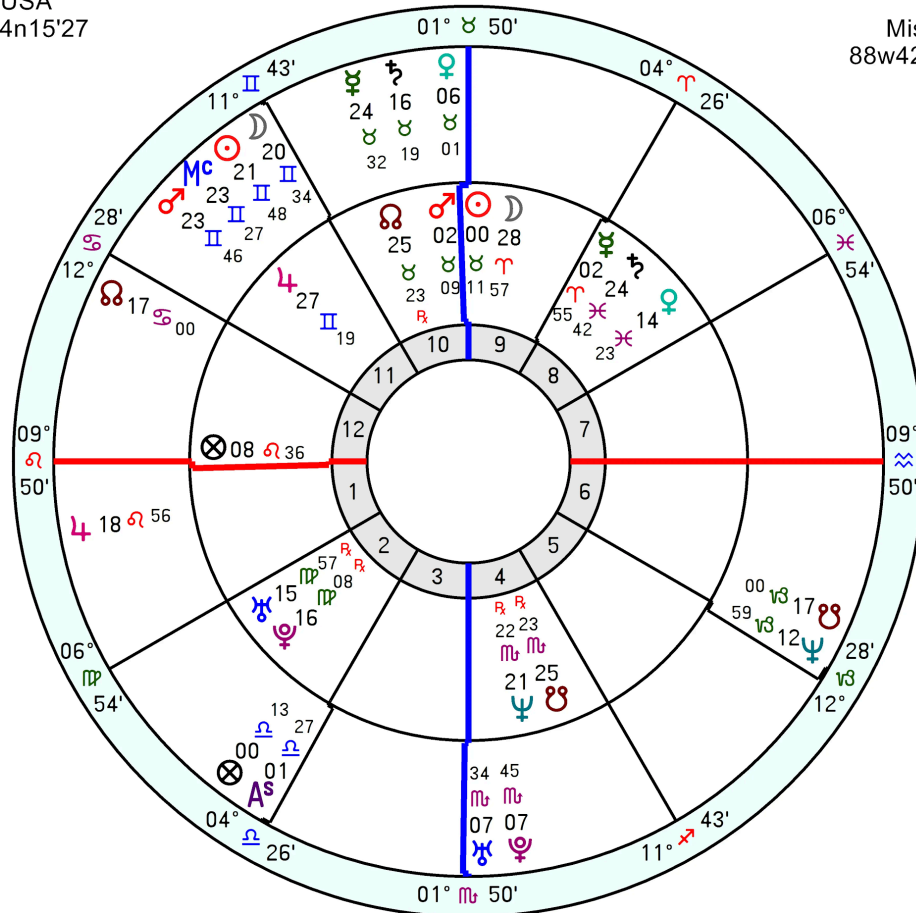

Donald the actor, Donald the TV star, Donald the Real Estate Mogul. He plays his part well and his many bankruptcies attest to his failure to actually perform. For Trump's first Tower he renovated the Grand Hyatt New York in the late 1970s, for which Fred provided $2 million to help repay the construction loan. He further assisted his son with a $35 million line of credit, a $30 million mortgage, and an additional corporate loan. Papa's there every step of the way coddling his son and grooming him to be his little clone. The trauma of Donald's separation at the Military school would always be fresh in his mind and the overarching need to please his father and for him not to reject him again. This ever drove him on as a sort of mania that eventually led him on the path to the White House. Mars/Pluto in Leo in the 12th. He would show them all as he would be better than any of them.

In 1964, Trump enrolled at Fordham University. Two years later he transferred to the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. While at Wharton, he worked at the family business, Elizabeth Trump & Son, again under the tutelage and under the thumb of his parents, this time his mother. He graduated in May 1968 with a B.S. in economics, which was focussed on real estate. Profiles of Trump published in The New York Times in 1973 and 1976 erroneously reported that he had graduated first in his class at Wharton, but he had never made the school's honor roll. As was indicated: his teachers were not as impressed with Donald as Donald was impressed with Donald. In 2015, Trump's lawyer Michael Cohen threatened Fordham University and the New York Military Academy with legal action if they released Trump's academic records. They must be quite bad, but this then feeds into the unreality of Donald Trump and whether by this point even he knows who he is.

Trump said he went to church before being elected at the Marble Collegiate Church in Manhattan. In 2015, after Trump said that he attends Marble, the church publicly stated that he "is not an active member" of the church. More of the 'play acting Donald regards as reality. Trump then attached himself to the "prosperity" Televangelist Paula White.

Paula White from her chart is a very unusual person. Her genome is Virgo Uranus Pluto Virgo Aries Moon Venus Pisces. She is a zero type and a Mercurial, but domineering personality type. She promotes prosperity through religion, which is very similar to a Rosicrucian series of seminars that were delivered to the general public during the 1980's. AMORC made a series of presentations on how positive visualizations and attitudes combined with cosmic attunement could bring about greater prosperity for oneself and their families. This is also outlined in the book published by AMORC and written by Spencer Lewis in the early years of AMORC entitled, Rosicrucian Principles for Home and Business. She promotes a quasi religion where you seek prosperity through Christ. She has now become the official chair of the evangelical advisory board in Donald Trump's administration. She delivered the invocation at his inauguration, on January 20, 2017. She is the first female clergy member to deliver the invocation. She is to Trump what Rasputin was to Nicholas Romanov. His mystic.

Paula White.

Now with his Moon/Neptune aspect Trump's whole life has an air of unreality. In the studies of mystics it was found that Mercury and Neptune were the highest occurring planets in the primary aspects of the natives. Trump has both. This is why he formed his MAGA campaign. He is in a way like Hitler in the sense that he wants his vision of America to become reality through some magical means. Maybe not through the triumph of his will, but more from a higher mystical plane. He said at one point early in the SARS 2 pandemic that one day the pandemic would just mysteriously disappear. I view Paula White as an amateur mystic who has just happened to have done well for herself. Paula's Mars aspects Trump's Jupiter/Uranus/Neptune complex in himself and he may even believe in her to an extent, as far as he can believe anything outside himself. Of course, Jupiter and Neptune being in Trump's second house of money he sees her as a means to an end. He may even think she has an in with God so he can keep his job at the White House as his Uranus is in his tenth house of career.

Donald Trump's mother Mary Anne was born in the Outer Hebrides to a very poor family in 1912. She later emigrated to the United States where she eventually met Fred Trump and they were married. However, by the time Donald was born in 1946 she was already 38 years old and at the birth of Donald's younger brother Robert she had to have an emergency hysterectomy and she barely survived. That was only when Donald was 3 years old.

Mary Anne's genome is Aquarius Moon Pluto Gemini Taurus Sun Mars Cancer. Mary Anne's Moon aspects Donald's Neptune very powerfully. She would not have been very affectionate with him, but he would have idolized her. The moon involved in the primary aspect is a sign of brilliance. She showed this by her stunning rise from a hovel in Scotland to become a wealthy woman in America. Mars gave extreme drive and tenacity. The Moon/Neptune aspect between Donald and Mary Anne was a conjunction in Cancer.

Fred Trump was an authoritarian parent, maintaining curfews and forbidding cursing, lipstick, and snacking between meals. At the end of his day, Trump would receive a report from Mary on the children's actions, and if necessary, decide upon disciplinary actions. He took his children to building sites to collect empty bottles to return for the deposits. The boys had paper routes, and when weather conditions were poor, their father would let them make their deliveries in a limousine. Mary Anne has Mars in the fourth house. There was a good deal of conflict in the home, but with her strong character she endured Fred's arrogance. For his charisma was not for home. He had important work to do and the kids would know the same. Off to the military school you little lagard!. Young Donald would often come to the defence of his mother and felt protective of her from his even more distant and domineering father. However, being a Scot from the Outer Hebrides she also would have more than a little familiarity with witchcraft which she seems to have used liberally, despite her Christian pretenses. And, who could blame her in the circumstances? She was probably not want to cast a spell, or two help her son out, now would she? Now, what would be the harm in that? And, being a beauty herself she knew a thing, or two about luring a husband. So, she did land a whopper.

That being said she may not have seen young Donald in his younger days as the sharpest tool in the shed, but Fred guided him through his education and training to become his successor in the family business. Donald glided through it all as if sometimes in a dream and it all seemed to be coming together. Was it his mother who was really the one dreaming and he, living the dream? Mary Anne's Saturn aspects Donald's Mercury/Saturn complex also aspecting his Sun. Her coldness, as expressed by the Saturn aspect, also had her turn a blind eye when the boy was sent away to training school. She was a brilliant schemer and young Donald John learned his lessons well seemingly having inherited the trait. It was all in the family and Donald was going to learn whether he liked it or not.

While Trump has not filed for personal bankruptcy, his over-leveraged hotel and casino businesses in Atlantic City and New York filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection six times between 1991 and 2009. Trump has both Jupiter and Neptune in the second house. Jupiter brings abundance, while Neptune brings the opposite. Trump's tax returns from 1985 to 1994 show net losses totaling $1.17 billion over the ten-year period, in contrast to his claims about his financial health and business abilities. The New York Times reported that "year after year, Mr. Trump appears to have lost more money than nearly any other individual American taxpayer", and Trump's "core business losses in 1990 and 1991, more than $250 million each year, were more than double those of the nearest taxpayers in the I.R.S. information for those years". In 1995 his reported losses were $915.7 million.

With Mars in the 12th house Trump is too rash and he makes decisions often based upon emotion, rather than his head. He makes rash statements out of turn. His Pluto in the 12th makes him think he has far deeper insights into things than most other people, but being in Leo is it more ego and bravado than substance? Both of these positions, however, also make one question the native's sanity. Donald is an amazing character in that he is living his parent's dream that they created for him, step by micro step and he is living out the program in a dreamlike state. This whole mystical dreaming, visualization scenario is why he chose the mystic Paula White, to be his cleric at the White House.

From 1996 to 2015, Trump owned all or part of the Miss Universe pageants, including Miss USA and Miss Teen USA. The beautiful Paula White looks like she could have been in one of those pageants and Donald has taste for beautiful women. At least twenty-three women have publicly accused Trump of sexual misconduct as of October 2019, including his then-wife Ivana. There were allegations of rape, violence, being kissed and groped without consent, looking under women's skirts, and walking in on naked women. In 2016, he denied all accusations, calling them "false smears", and alleged there was a conspiracy against him. However, in a taped interview that was aired before he was president he as much as admitted to doing just those very types of things because he could as he was rich and famous. It's all part of the Neptunian dream world he lives in. Mars in the 12th in Leo. Leo and Mars in scientific studies has been shown to be associated with sexual violence and domination. In the 12th house this is tried to be kept hush, hush. American Media, Inc. (AMI) paid $150,000 to Playboy model Karen McDougal in August 2016, and Trump's attorney Michael Cohen paid $130,000 to adult film actress Stormy Daniels in October 2016. Both women were paid for non-disclosure agreements regarding their alleged affairs with Trump between 2006 and 2007.

Ivana Trump was Donald's first wife and her Venus at 17 degrees of Aquarius makes aspect with Donald's Jupiter/Uranus complex, which in turns aspect's Fred's Mercury/Venus/Sun complex. She was just his type of girl and he thought his father would approve, and he did.

Ivana's genome is Pisces Mars Jupiter Capricorn Libra Neptune Pluto Leo . She said she was on the national ski team in her native Czech Republic and she taught skiing. She lived the dream, Neptune, through her marriage, Libra, beyond her wildest dreams, Pluto, to Donald Trump who has Leo rising. Dreaming and dreaming she entered the family of dreamers. Everything was sticking to the program until she learned of Donald's, Mars in Leo in the 12th house, affairs, especially to one Marla Maples. As she said later, don't get mad, just take everything. She has since lived a life of luxury including a 105 foot yacht.

Marla Maples genome is Sagittarius Mars Saturn Aquarius Scorpio Sun Venus Scorpio. Maples is a TV and movie star and a well known American personality. She is seventeen years younger than Donald Trump. There are really no very strong connections between Marla and Donald and it seems she most likely ended the marriage after only six years. The beginning of the end was when Donald caught Marla down by the beach under a lifeguard stand with one of the bodyguards. They separated shortly afterwards. When Donald Trump asked Marla to marry him she said it was because of the Long Island Railroad shooting on December 7th, 1993 and that Donald had reassessed his life and wanted to get married. Colin Ferguson was on a train that he boarded at 5:33 pm. As the train approached the Merillon Avenue station, Ferguson drew the gun, dropped several cartridges on the ground, stood up, and opened fire at random. During the next three minutes, he killed six people and injured another nineteen.

We have no birth time for Colin Ferguson, so we cannot use the moon in the aspects. We notice first off in Ferguson's chart that Mars, Mercury, Venus, Jupiter and Pluto are all in the prime and secondary aspects and thus make up his genome. He is clearly the serial killer type. His Uranus is in Leo and Pluto is in Virgo, further genotyping him as the serial killer type. At the time of his killing spree the Sun was at 15 degrees of Sagittarius which triggered his Primary and Secondary serial killer genome. Mars- murder, on the train- Mercury - Sun in Sagittarius. The cops said he just exploded- Uranus in Leo. These people seem to need to need no real reason to kill, just to satisfy their strange desires and to hurt and kill as many people as possible. Colin's Sun makes a close aspect with Trump's Saturn. Saturn is the planet of re-evaluation and causes one to reflect on one's life. Thus, Colin Ferguson was instrumental in the marriage of Marla Maples and Donald Trump. Ferguson's Mars/Mercury/Venus/Jupiter complex makes close aspect with Marla Maple's Mars, Saturn and Neptune. Seems it allowed her to get what she desired- Mars- marriage to Trump, and this allowed her to have her dreams come true- Neptune, but it was to be in the end a deep lesson for her- Saturn.

Melania became Trump's third wife and she is his 'dream girl.'

We can see in Melania's chart that the Sun, Mars, and Uranus are all within a degree of aspect of one another. We cannot use her moon as we do not have her birth time. Melania's genome is Taurus Sun Uranus Libra Libra Uranus Mars Gemini. She is considered by many to be a great beauty and is a model. Melania's Uranus, Sun, and Mars all aspect Donald Trump's Neptune and Moon. As we have seen Neptune is everything to Trump. She is his dream girl and he must really love her as the planets also aspect his Moon, which rules the emotions. However, she is far his junior, being 34 years younger than he and will long outlive him.

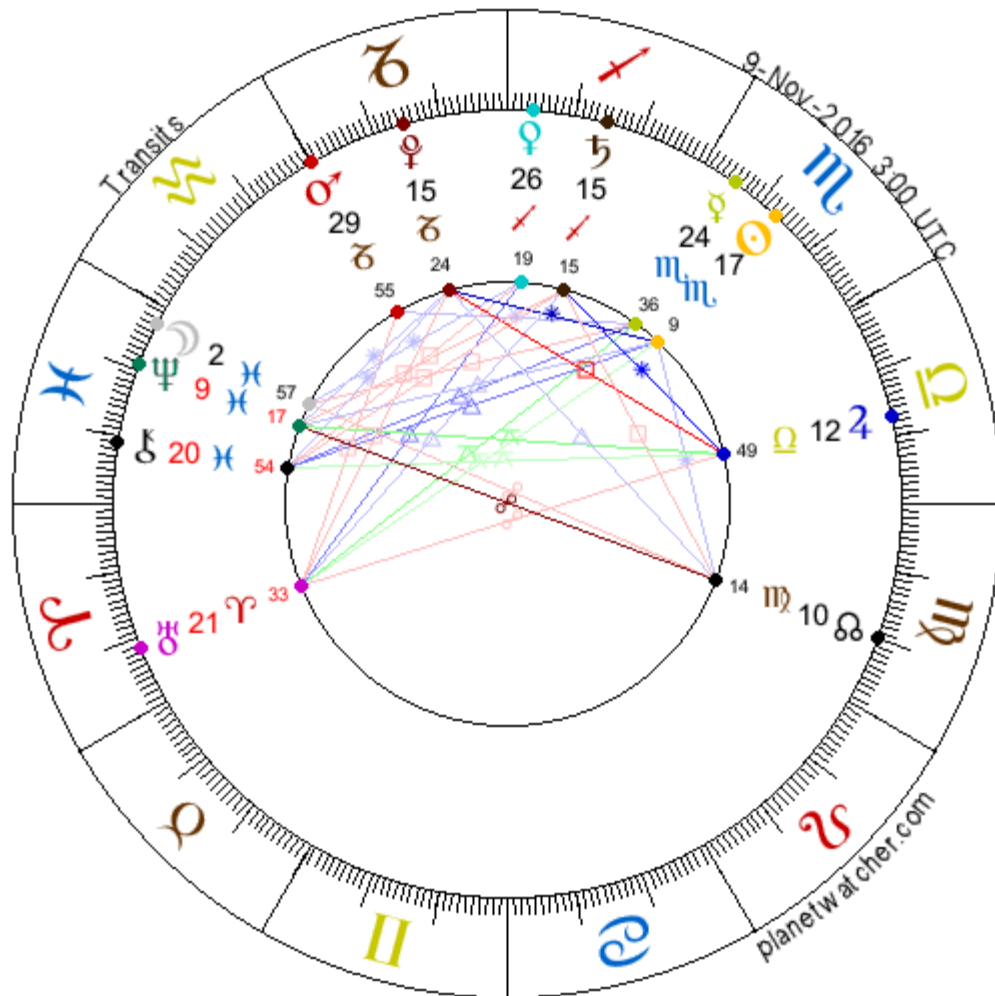

When Melania and Donald were married the Moon and Uranus were making aspect with Melania's Sun, Mars, and Uranus complex. This was very meaningful for her and she took it very seriously and pledged her heart. These same planets aspected Donald's Neptune. It was his dream come true. It seems that finally, maybe he had made the right choice. This was not a woman like Ivana who he thought his father would approve of and did wholeheartedly, and not a chance encounter, like Marla, but someone who he wanted and desired to have and to hold as his own.

Donald Trump announced that he was going to run for president on June 15, 2015:

This is just one day after Donald's birthday, so the transiting Sun is still in conjunction with his own Sun. It was good for his ego. The Sun and Mars were also both applying to aspect with Donald's Venus and Mars. Jupiter was just past aspect with Trump's Jupiter and Uranus and so, he would have been able to garner some important and some unexpected support in the previous short time and so he was flush with the sight of victory within his grasp. Thus, he made his bid for the highest position in the land. We notice that with Mercury at 5 degrees of Gemini, Melania would have had a strong role in his decision for his bid on the White House and she approved.

On November 8, 2016 Donald Trump was elected as President of the United States of America.

The Sun was at 17 degrees of Scorpio, triggering Trump's Jupiter/Uranus Secondary aspect and Fred Trump's Sun, Venus and Mercury Primary and Secondary aspects. Jupiter at 12 degrees of Libra aspected Donald's Mars, he was getting what he wanted and what his father had set for him. Both were getting what they had dreamed of. Uranus was at 21 degrees of Aries making aspect with Trump's Moon. It was a close and unexpected victory and as Uranus was retrograde, recounts were called.

Joe Biden will be running against Donald Trump in the 2020 election on November 3rd. Biden's genome is Scorpio Sun Mars Scorpio Cancer Jupiter Saturn Gemini. Biden is a hawk to Trump's dove. He is a killer type and a zero. In his office it is doubtful he would pursue war if it was not necessary. He is more Mercurial than Jupiterian and so is a negotiator. His Saturn in Gemini made him stutter all his life, but he has worked on it by reciting poetry. He also has asthma, another Gemini affliction.

The 2020 election:

Trump does not have the support in this election that he did in the past election and there is not going to be any unexpected outcomes. Biden's chart is much more heavily supported than Trump's is in the election with Jupiter, Saturn and Pluto all aspecting his Sun, Mercury and Jupiter. However, as sure win for Biden is not shown as Jupiter is in aspect with Trump's own Jupiter and with luck he may be able to come through. Neither of these men were scholars at school and did not graduate with honors by any means. Biden barely made it through being 76th out of a class of 85 and Trump won't let anyone know how poorly he scored. Biden seems to have a better grip on reality, than Trump does and may be the better choice to deal with the resurging SARS 2 virus in the fall. Biden also seems to understand enough science to know that the world is actually heating up and that it is not just some Chinese hoax. As there will be little public exposure for Biden it will all be up Donald's luck. Will it hold out, or will it finally let him down and have everything come crashing down into a Neptunian pool of tears?

Trump's health is not as good as he claims, just like almost everything he says. When he was young at school he was a sports star as revealed by his Mars conjunct the ascendant. In his later years he has become very sedentary and his only exercise is an occasional round of golf and he rides the cart around the course. His chart indicates he has heart disease and his latest examination confirms this. He has blocked arteries in his heart. This is not uncommon for a man his age. He also has a sleeping disorder as he claims he likes only sleeping three, or four hours a night. He has been prescribed Fen-Phen for years and this helps him stay awake after little sleep and may be the cause in part of his sleep disorder. This will only aggravate his heart condition.

Joe Biden has had an aneurysm and has indications of cancer in his chart. He will likely die of cancer, if he does not have another circulatory failure in the meantime. Donald Trump will die from heart disease and how far in the future this is may depend on how active and fit he is and if he stops taking the stimulants. Neither Biden, nor Trump drink, which is good for both their healths. They need it as they are the oldest people to ever run for the office of the president. Biden will be 77 if he wins and Trump will be 74.

Overall we can see that Donald Trump is a basically average, but deeply troubled man. His parents set goals that were so high for him that he was under constant pressure to perform all his life. He finally did accomplish that great goal that would have so pleased his father and mother by being elected President. However, and this must bother him, it was due to uncanny luck as he did not win the popular vote, but the electoral college carried him. This probably means he will pull out all the stops for this election and with his heart condition we must pray he does not overexert himself. The next few months will be very critical as is obvious, but more for Trump than we may realize. Jupiter is now in aspect with Trump's Mars and he is feeling the pressure much more than he is letting on. Jupiter is retrograde and his decisions are being questioned. Saturn will be in aspect with Trump's Mars on election day and this may bring about even greater pressure. If he remains calm, cool and collected, which he is not prone to being, he may be able to see this through as the calm eye of the storm. However, Biden is much more of this type than Trump and we will see how it all pans out in the long run. I question both men's health at their age to be running for the White House. The strain may be too great for them and the public may be wise to look at who the running mate is for both of these older gentlemen.

On election day the electorate will be looking for revolutionary thinking as Venus will be in exact aspect with Uranus. Who will be their hero this time?
