

Arrival
I've got the joy...
December 14, 2025

'And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,..."
– Luke 2:13

Scripture passages for this week: Luke 2:8-20, Acts 2:2, Acts 9:3, Hebrews 12:2

Because of the _____ of Jesus in your heart, you can experience _____.

The Christmas story reminds us that things can change
_____.

Shepards were ritually _____.

The very people (shepherds) who _____ go into the temple to access God, were selected to go to the manger and be in the presence of _____ Son...the _____.

God _____ going to call you to be a _____ to someone.

The Greek word for 'consider' (hegeomai) in Philippians 3:8 involves a _____ weighing of facts.

In your pro vs con list, when your pro is knowing _____ as your Lord and savior it outweighs _____ the cons you could possibly stack against it.

Joy comes from being _____ on Christ and the fact that He who began the good work will be _____ to complete it.

The greatest enemy of joy is not _____, it is _____.

Reflect on these questions this week:

- How joyful do you feel right now just over a week from Christmas?
- Where is your pursuit of happiness distracting you from experiencing joy?
- How can you slow down in this Advent Season in order to experience more joy?

Write other ways the Holy Spirit spoke to you here:

