

Army Basics

- 1) Love & support all 7. If you can't do this, you aren't ARMY. Having a bias or bias line is fine as long as you love all 7 and support them equally. (bias/bias line = member/members you resonate with more)
- 2) Trust BTS and BTS only.
- 3) Listen to BTS. Take anything that doesn't come directly from them or BigHit with a grain of salt.
- 4) Respect BTS. Respect their privacy, respect their personal time. If you see them out in public, no you didn't. Don't go to airports and don't share pics/videos from their personal time that they didn't share with us. Also, don't share military pics and videos unless they come from the members themselves
- 5) Mind your business. They share so much with us already. Anything beyond what they openly share with us isn't our business. We have no right to know or to speculate about those things.
- 6) BTS family & friends are off limits. Unless they are an artist and you are following for their work, don't follow them on social media. Don't send them DMs about the members, and don't share their accounts or what they post with other people.

(V's post on Weverse thanking ARMYs for pretending to not know him)

Basic Etiquette for BTS Live Streams

- 1) Don't ask them to speak your language.
- 2) Don't ask for other members.
- 3) Don't spam nonsense. Show them that you are interested in what they have to say. Ask them about their day, their music, their pets. Tell them how much you love them and their work.
- 4) Don't push your ships
- 5) Know your boundaries. Their personal lives aren't our business. If they want us to know something, they will tell us.
- 6) Don't tell them what to do.
- 7) Don't put them on the spot about rumors or fabricated scandals.
- 8) Don't ask inappropriate questions. It is not okay to make them uncomfortable.

9) Just enjoy getting to spend time with them. Engage with them and have fun.
