

VIOLIN'S KH SHUFFLER SUBATHON

Starting September 15th, 2025

Streamed on twitch.tv/Violin and youtube.com/@ViolinSpeedruns

Info

The goal of this subathon is to beat every playable game in the Kingdom Hearts series on the hardest difficulty before the subathon timer hits 0, but there's a BIG catch: every game will be randomly SHUFFLED and will change to a random game at random intervals. For every Twitch subscriber, 7 minutes will be added to the on-screen timer. By subscribing and giving bits, you will also be able to make random visual and audio effects pop up to mess with me while I play! I will be streaming every day until the subathon timer hits 0 or until I beat every game. If I take a break on stream, I will pause the timer, and when I start the stream the next day, the timer will continue from where it left off during the end of the previous stream. I might also take a full day off every now and then in order to rest.

Why am I doing this?

I need money to pay off rent and debt and this is a fun way to do it :)
