Course Description/ Rationale:

reading and Writing comprehension will always be an important aspect of child's education. This year, Grade 6 students will read more complex texts in a number of different genres, and also do a lot of non-fiction reading. This will help them further develop their reading and writing skills. As far as writing is concerned, sixth-grade language arts focuses on getting students to become more independent writers as they begin to work on formal essays and more detailed writing assignments.

Overall Expectations:

1. listen in order to understand and respond appropriately in a variety of situations for a variety of purposes;
2. Support their answers by using details and facts from a text
3. read and demonstrate an understanding of a variety of literary, graphic, and informational texts, using a range of strategies to construct meaning;
4. Understand grammar rules, punctuation, capitalization
5. Write a complete paragraph with topic sentence and supporting details
6. create a variety of media texts for different purposes and audiences, using appropriate forms, conventions, and techniques;
7. Use different sources (books, websites, articles) to do research
