Church Cleaning Volunteers

Since we have decided to stop the cleaning services at the church, we need your help to keep our space clean. We have a sign-up sheet in the foyer. We are asking for families/ individuals to sign up for a month at a time. More than one family/ individual can sign up per month to share the load. Details are next to sign up sheet. Thank you for serving in this way!

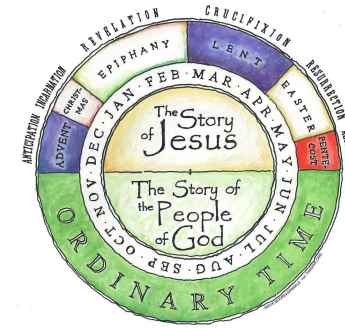

Ash Wednesday

Join us Ash Wednesday for a reflective interactive worship service as we prepare to enter into the season of Lent. This is a child-friendly service. Our desire is to cultivate an authentic space and atmosphere in which to repent, turn around and return to the gospel of Jesus Christ and allow Him to have His way with us.

Wednesday, February 22 – 6:30pm-7:30pm

Leadership Team Members

We are still short a couple Leadership Team Members. Especially Female, as present we have none. Please consider praying about and joining us. Talk with Pastor Seth if you are considering joining the team.

Welcome

Call to Worship

"You're blessed when you're at the end of your rope. With less of you there is more of God and his rule. "You're blessed when you feel you've lost what is most dear to you. Only then can you be embraced by the One most dear to you. "You're blessed when you're content with just who you are—no more, no less. That's the moment you find yourselves proud owners of everything that can't be bought. "You're blessed when you've worked up a good appetite for God. He's food and drink in the best meal you'll ever eat. "You're blessed when you care. At the moment of being 'care-full,' you find yourselves cared for. "You're blessed when you get your inside world—your mind and heart—put right. Then you can see God in the outside world. "You're blessed when you can show people how to cooperate instead of compete or fight. That's when you discover who you really are, and your place in God's family. "You're blessed when your commitment to God provokes persecution. The persecution drives you even deeper into God's kingdom.

SERMON OUTLINE:

Beatitude Observations – Matthew 4:12-17; 5:1-12

How is this Sermon kept from frustrated idealism and oppressive legalism?

What is the context of the Sermon on the Mount?

What is Jesus' gospel?

So, how do we know, that in fact, we are believing in Jesus' gospel?

Observations on the Beatitudes as a whole:

#1: _____

#2: _____

#3: _____

#4: _____ μακάριος

Which term do you like the best? Why?

#5: _____

What makes this such good news?

Beatitude Prayer

God, our Creator, thank you for the gift of Jesus. He walked among us embodying your creative and life-giving Word in his body, his life, his words, his deeds, his sufferings, his death, and his resurrection. When we see him loving the outcast, forgiving the sinner, confronting the hypocrite, and teaching the crowds a new way of life, we see your heart, your compassion, your mercy, your character. To know Jesus is to love him, and to love him is to know him, and to know and love him is to know and love you.

So help us, Lord, to be among your disciples who come to you to be taught.

Help us, Lord, to be among the poor in spirit, to see and know that your kingdom is our homeland even now ...

Help us, Lord, to be among those who mourn, to join you in your sadness for all that's wrong and broken in this world, and in joining you, to find true comfort.

Help us, Lord, to be among the meek, those who find strength in weakness and power in vulnerability, to never fear lack or want, because when we have your love, it is enough.

Help us, Lord, to desire justice, rightness, goodness, fairness, cleanness, clearness, and integrity more than we hunger for food or thirst for water ... and so let us find the truest fulfillment and satisfaction.

Help us, Lord, to be among the merciful. Help us to be a true friend to those who are hated, misunderstood, rejected, excluded, disregarded ... just as you, God of Mercy, are. When others fail - when they fail us - help us show the same mercy you show to those who fail you ... including us – including me.

Help us, Lord, to be among the pure in heart. May your pure light shine in our heart and dispel every shadow, every layer and fold that conceals or pretends. Since it is only the heart that sees you, remove from our heart everything that keeps us from seeing you.

Help us, Lord, to be among the makers of peace. Many build walls. Many sow fear and distrust. Many spread rumors. Many inflame conflict and profit from it. Help us to be even among them an agent and messenger of your peace and reconciliation, and so bear your family likeness, God of peace.

Help us, Lord, not to fear being among the persecuted, but rather, to rejoice in having the honor of standing for your restorative justice and rightness, so we will see that your kingdom is our homeland, even now.

Help us, Lord, to be among those who suffer wrong well and with grace. Help us not to resent it, not to fear it, not to seek to escape it. Instead, help us to find joy in it ... when others insult us, make our life more difficult, or falsely malign us because of you. Help us to see through the momentary, light trouble to the lasting and weighty reward, even now, for your kingdom comes by suffering rather than by making others suffer.

So help us, Lord, to be among your disciples who come to you to be taught. We are limping, broken sinners and beginners, far from these realities, but this is where we want to go. In your mercy, lead us in the way we get synchronized, put in alignment with the really real. Amen.
