

Use this handout to keep track of your seminar discussion, take notes, and reflect on your discussions.

Discussion Questions for Ch. 2:

- How has law enforcement changed because of the War on Drugs?
- How has the Supreme Court helped perpetuate this system of discrimination?
- How does money and class perpetuate this system of discrimination?

Directions:

1. Review Ch. 2 of TNJC and your reading log. Write down two discussion questions that are different from those listed above and then choose two golden lines (you don’t have to write out the whole quote; you can write part of the quote and reference the page number) from the chapter that are meaningful to you.

Your Questions:

Your Golden Lines:

2. Discuss and take notes on the ideas discussed on the “Discussion Notes Page.”
3. Keep track of who is speaking on the chart below.
 - a. Use a ✓ for each time a person, including yourself, makes a statement
 - b. Use a ? for each time a person, including yourself, asks a question.
4. Complete the reflection on the Socratic discussion. (This tracker and reflection will be collected.)

Name:	Name:	Name:
Name:	Name:	Name:

Reflection:

1. What do you notice about people's participation during the discussion? Did some people speak more than others? Did some people ask more questions?
2. What do you notice about your participation during the discussion?
3. What do you think went well about the discussion?
4. What would you like to improve or change for the next discussion?

Surprising-Interesting-Troubling:

What did you find to be surprising, interesting, or troubling about this chapter of TNJC? Why?

Take notes on your discussion. You may use these notes when we have our quiz on Ch. 1-3. Some of the questions discussed today will be on the quiz.

Question	Notes
How has law enforcement changed because of the War on Drugs?
How has the Supreme Court helped perpetuate this system of discrimination?
How does money and class perpetuate this system of discrimination?
Other notes	