

Before we begin with the varsity wrestling match, the Fort Atkinson Wrestling Club would like to recognize the outstanding contributions of three individuals to the sport of wrestling here in Fort Atkinson and induct them into the inaugural class of the Fort Atkinson Wrestling Hall of Fame. When your name is called, please come forward to accept your award.

Bob Downing

Bob Downing is a longtime supporter of Fort Atkinson wrestling. Founded by his mother, Bob has kept the spirit & legacy of the Downing Wrestling Scholarship alive. This award is given annually to an underclassman that exhibits the attributes of a high character wrestler and is to be used for their continued development in wrestling.

John Satterlee

John was been a longtime supporter of Fort Atkinson wrestling, being a stalwart attendee at home and away duals. His contribution to wrestling was most visible during his time covering the Fort Atkinson Wrestling program for the Daily Union. His immense collection of pictures and articles has served to capture the rich history of this program.

Ron Hachtel

Ron is one of the original founders of the Fort Atkinson Wrestling Youth club. He was a longtime varsity assistant and served many years as youth coach. His legacy is ingrained in anyone he coached – he was tough, yet, had the compassion to not only push the athletes but find a way to help them achieve their goals.

The Fort Atkinson Wrestling Club is pleased to honor Bob Downing, John Saterlee, and Ron Hachtel, as inductees into the inaugural Class of 2014 Fort Atkinson Wrestling Hall of Fame.
