

McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act

The McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act is a federal law designed to support students experiencing homelessness by ensuring they have equal access to a free and appropriate public education. The McKinney-Vento Education for Homeless Children and Youth (EHCY) Program removes barriers to enrollment, attendance, and academic success for students who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence.

Why It Matters

Homelessness should not disrupt a child's education. The McKinney-Vento Act ensures that students can remain in school, receive necessary support services, and continue their academic and social development without unnecessary obstacles.
