Appeal of Gifted Identification or Denial of Academic Acceleration

Ohio Revised Code 3324.04 requires districts to give parents the opportunity “to appeal any decision about the results of any screening procedure or assessment, the scheduling of children for assessment, or the placement of a student in any program or for receipt of services.”

This form may be used to submit your appeal to the building principal. Once your form has been received the principal will review the form and contact you to schedule a meeting.
