

Reviewer name:

Author of paper being reviewed:

Directions

- Click "File -> Make a Copy" or "File→ Download" to make a copy you can edit and submit. (you can put both on one file or submit two)
- Use the bullet points to guide your comments. You should have 3-4 sentences for each section. Provide constructive criticism. (check out this blog for tips)

Intro / thesis

- Thesis: There is a thesis statement that clearly states the main point of this paper.
- Purpose: The first paragraph tells the reader why he or she should care.
- Overview: The first paragraph provides an overview of the details that follow.
- Please put in your own words what the main point of this paper is:

- Additional comments:

Body / analysis

- Focus: Each paragraph in the body has a clear purpose, which contributes to the main point of the paper.
- Organization: The content of the body is organized in a logical manner.
- Data / information: Each point is supported by data / information that is properly cited.
- Comments:

Conclusion / synthesis

- Synthesis: The information that has been presented in the body is tied together, and it is clearly explained how this information supports the thesis.
- Conclusion: Concluding remarks may, for example, re-state the purpose (i.e. why this matters).
- Comments: