

SD deer elusive after EHD outbreak November 18, 2016 South Dakota

Daily Republic

... Epizootic Hemorrhagic Disease, or EHD, which killed more than 3,700 deer in 2012. But EHD has made an impact again this year... More than 2,000 deer have been reported dead in 23 counties, with the heaviest losses in Brule, Aurora and Beadle counties, ... roughly 1,500 licenses were returned as of noon Friday...

Deer Lottery Held, Antlerless Licenses Remain July 25, 2016 South Dakota, KFGO

... The first lottery application process – deer gun, muzzleloader, youth and landowner – had more than 102,000 applicants, and over 51,000 were unsuccessful...

State Legislature review committee looks at regs July 13, 2016 South Dakota, The Capital Journal

... The Game, Fish and Parks Commission is offering free hunting licenses for landowners to use on their own properties for antlerless deer. This became legal in 2011 ...

Livestock producers need to be watchful of disease most common in deer September 18, 2016 South Dakota, Tri-State Neighbor

... epizootic hemorrhagic disease (EHD) appears to be causing deer deaths in Nebraska and southern South Dakota ... EHD is caused by a virus that is spread by Culicoides biting midges. The disease generally peaks in late summer or early fall and ends with freezing temperatures ...

EHD, Deadly disease causing high white-tailed deer casualties September 30, 2016 South Dakota, West Fargo Pioneer

... South Dakota Game, Fish and Parks has received reports of 511 dead deer since the summer, all of which are presumed to be caused by epizootic hemorrhagic disease (EHD) or bluetongue ... the number still has not risen to 2012 levels, when 3,700 dead deer were reported ...

Pierre City Commission puts deer management task force on ice as white-tails high-tail it out of town October 13, 2016 South Dakota, The Capital Journal

... the topic of discussion was the low number of deer we have all been seeing and the low amount of complaints ... EHD, or epizootic hemorrhagic disease, has wiped out a good part of the whitetail population in the state in the past year or two ...

GFP Removes Left-over Licenses and Offers Refunds Due to Deer Disease October 14, 2016 South Dakota, GFP News

South Dakota Game, Fish and Parks (GFP) has received nearly 1,200 reports of dead white-tailed deer likely due to epizootic hemorrhagic disease (EHD). Reports of deer loss have been documented in 38 counties, with EHD confirmed in 17 counties through laboratory testing. ... GFP is removing all remaining antlerless licenses from the following East River firearm hunting units: Aurora, Brule, Buffalo, Douglas, Hand, Hughes, Jerauld, Miner, Sanborn, and East and West Sully...

GF&P offering deer license refunds October 19, 2016 South Dakota, Sioux Falls Argus Leader

... reports of more than 1,200 white-tail deer deaths as a result of the disease, stretching across 38 counties. Lab testing has confirmed cases in 17 counties....

GFP Removes Left-over Licenses and Offers Refunds Due to Deer Disease October 14, 2016 South Dakota, GFP News

South Dakota Game, Fish and Parks (GFP) has received nearly 1,200 reports of dead white-tailed deer likely due to epizootic hemorrhagic disease (EHD). Reports of deer loss have been documented in 38 counties, with EHD confirmed in 17 counties through laboratory testing. ... GFP is removing all remaining antlerless licenses from the following East River firearm hunting units: Aurora, Brule, Buffalo, Douglas, Hand, Hughes, Jerauld, Miner, Sanborn, and East and West Sully...