Welcome to Educationality, where we explore all things education. I'm your host, Monica Mobley, and this is my co-host-

Sadie Jenkins (00:12):

Sadie Jenkins. And welcome back, everybody. We are here for our seventh teacher tip of the day in celebration of International Podcast Day.

Monica Mobley (00:22):

This hour, we're bringing back a blast from the past with a teacher tip, specifically a coach's tip which has a great classroom application as well. Back with us from the land of the retired is the legendary coach, Scott Bowlen.

Sadie Jenkins (00:33):

Woohoo. Coaches really have some good wisdom about teamwork and motivation and success. And this teacher/coach tip is definitely some great advice.

Monica Mobley (00:46):

I can't wait. Let's listen.

Scott Bowlen (00:48):

Coaching tip of the day. For 39 years, I was the head basketball coach at eight different schools and there were many things I learned throughout that time. And the last 10 to 15 years has really been as different as any of the 24 years before. The thing that I'd like to impress upon all coaches and teachers is teach them and coach them all. So many times we see the kids who aren't very good and not getting the attention that they deserve as much as your best students and your best players.

Scott Bowlen (01:21):

You never know what kind of impression you're making with kids. And I think that's one of the big things I learned throughout my career was coach them all, teach them all, make them feel important because you never know what you're going to do for their life as they get older. They may not ever be able to help you, but they will be able to understand what it takes to work and be successful. So that's my tip of the day, is coach them and teach them all.

Monica Mobley (01:50):

Teach them and coach them all. We can all be reminded of that to good end.

Sadie Jenkins (01:54):

What better way to say, "I value you"?

Monica Mobley (01:58):

Everyone definitely wants to feel valued and one way you can feel valued is by winning our fantastic International Podcast Day trivia extravaganza we've had going on today. Okay, well maybe that's a little bit of an exaggeration. I got my coach going on, but still, the game is on.

Sadie Jenkins (02:13):

The game is on. So it's time for trivia. But first, let me remind you again how to get your answers to us. You can text your answer with your name and school to 870 569 6789. Again, that's three things, your name, your school, and answer text to 870 569 6789.

Monica Mobley (02:39):

Thanks, Sadie. We'll repeat that number again after the question. So here we go, seventh question of the day. What is the relationship between podcasts and Twitter? Yes, I did say that. What is the relationship between podcasts and Twitter?

Sadie Jenkins (02:57):

Okay, so if you know that, text your answer, your name, and your school to 870 569 6789. Good luck.

Monica Mobley (03:08):

Teach them all and coach them all, Sadie, about what they could win.

Sadie Jenkins (03:11):

All right, here we go. The listener who submits the most correct responses to the questions-

Monica Mobley (03:16):

One submission per question, please.

Sadie Jenkins (03:18):

... will be entered to win our Educationality gift bag and one free registration to see Marcia Tate in person this summer. You have until midnight Sunday, October 2nd to get your submissions in.

Monica Mobley (03:33):

And that's our seventh episode of International Podcast Day. We'll be catching up with you again at 2:00 PM. Continue to enjoy your afternoon.

Sadie Jenkins (03:40):

See you soon.
