SISTER ROSE THERING FUND FOURTEENTH ANNUAL LITERARY ARTS & VIDEO COMPETITION

Theme: EXHIBITING MORAL COURAGE & STANDING UP TO INJUSTICE CAN CHANGE THE WORLD

Through words and actions, Sister Rose Thering demonstrated great moral courage. This year's competition provides an opportunity to show how, by exhibiting moral courage and standing up against injustice, one person can positively affect the world.

- Think about a relative or friend, a past or present public figure, or a character in a literary work who demonstrated great moral courage, stood up to injustice and changed the world in which he/she/they live/lived.
- Watch the Academy Award-nominated documentary, Sister Rose's Passion. Conduct research on your chosen character. Share your research and analysis in an essay, poem or video showing how your character's behavior would be considered morally courageous.

Open to all New Jersey students in grades 7 – 12.

Entry Deadline: February 2, 2024
