- A person who meets the criteria for disability as defined by Social Security
- A person aged 19 to 64 with an annual income of less than 133 percent of the federal poverty level (FPL)
- A citizen of the United States and a resident of Iowa

You must fall under one of the following thresholds for household income (before taxes) to qualify:

Annual Household Income Limits (before taxes)

Household Size*	Maximum Income Level (Per Year)
1	$18,075
2	$24,353
3	$30,630
4	$36,908
5	$43,186
6	$49,463
7	$55,741

What if a person's income is too high to qualify for regular Medicaid benefits?

Iowa may give a Medicaid spend-down for elderly, blind, and disabled people who do not satisfy eligibility requirements if they need Medicaid coverage and their income is above the Medicaid income thresholds in the state.

To be eligible for Iowa Medicaid, you can use this program to deduct a portion of your medical expenses from your income.

You may qualify for a Medicaid spend-down if your medical costs substantially lower your usable payment.

A medically needy program or Medicaid's Excess Income Program are other names for the spend-down program.
